ARTHUR BLANK

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

'16 '04 '10 '12 '16

Perhaps best known as a co-founder of The Home Depot, Arthur M. Blank is now widely recognized for his diverse businesses and philanthropy. Distinguished by Forbes as one of the World's 100 Greatest Living Business Minds 2017 and Sports Business Journal's Sports Executive of the Year in 2018, Blank's Family of Businesses portfolio currently includes the Atlanta Falcons; reigning Major League Soccer champion, Atlanta United; PGA TOUR Superstore; The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation; Mountain Sky Guest Ranch; West Creek Ranch; and AMB Group, the parent company of his for-profit businesses. Blank and the Falcons, in partnership with the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia, are the private funders of Mercedes-Benz Stadium, named the 2019 Sports Business Journal Sports Facility of the Year. The stadium is operated by the Atlanta Falcons Stadium Company, a company also owned by AMB Group and is home to the Falcons and Atlanta United.

The 2019 season will mark the 18th for Blank as Owner & Chairman of the Falcons. In his tenure as steward of the NFL and MLS franchises in Atlanta, Blank has established himself as a respected leader and model owner whose vision and accomplishments in building two winners have been profiled across the globe.

The determination of Blank to build a consistent winner for Atlanta and provide the fan base with a team it can be proud of and call their own is unmatched in sports. Atlanta's impressive six-year run from 2008-2012 included two number one seeds in the NFC playoffs (2010, 2012), a team-record three consecutive playoffs berths (2010-12), four double-digit winning seasons (2008, 2010-12), two 13-win seasons (2010, 2012), two NFC South Division championships (2010, 2012) and an NFC Championship (2016). Eight of the club's 14 playoff appearances have come since Blank purchased the team. Blank's expectations are to surpass that run and bring a championship to the city and the franchise.

Blank has put several pieces into place for his franchises and business to continue to reach the pinnacle of success. With Blank's careful guidance and the continued success of the state-of-the-art, Mercedes-Benz Stadium, the Blank Family of Businesses are poised to reach and stay on top of the business and sports world.

IT TAKES A TEAM

Since Blank acquired the Falcons in 2002, the team has made the playoffs eight times in 17 seasons and has achieved unprecedented success off the field as well. Three years before Blank purchased the Falcons, the club averaged about 37,000 season ticket holders per year. Since 2002, the Falcons have never sold fewer than 50,000 season tickets in any year. Additionally, during the same period, the club has sold out 126 of 128 regular season games, including closing out the Georgia Dome with a streak of eight consecutive sellout seasons.

"I have been blessed here with a great team of people," Blank said. "I have always believed in bringing the best people together, creating the right environment, giving them the resources they need, being a cheerleader for them and making sure the culture is set in place before getting out of the way and allowing them to do what they need to do."

Blank is also a key contributor to many of the NFL's major committees. He currently chairs the NFL Audit Committee and is a member of the league's Finance, Legislative, Workplace Diversity, and Social Justice committees.

The increasing relevance of the Falcons has provided numerous opportunities for the franchise and city of Atlanta to be showcased on nationally-televised games. The Falcons have two primetime games in 2019 and in one of those games, the Falcons will host the Thursday night game on Thanksgiving in Mercedes-Benz Stadium for the first time. The Falcons have gone 8-4 in primetime games since 2015. Additionally, MBS became the first stadium ever selected to serve as the stage for NBC's iconic introduction to the top-rated show on television, Sunday Night Football.

"Our exposure through prime-time games over the years speaks directly to the outstanding performances of our players and coaches," Blank said. "Make no mistake, however, that our larger goal remains to play under the worldwide spotlight of the Super Bowl. There are 31 other teams out there that want the Lombardi Trophy just as much as we do, so we have to be focused and diligent to remain a marquee team in this league."

MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM

In May 2014, Blank and the Falcons broke ground on Mercedes-Benz Stadium, which opened in 2017 and was named the Sports Business Journal Sports Facility of the Year in 2019. In addition to being the home for the Falcons, the stadium is also home to Atlanta United FC, the Major League Soccer team that was awarded to Blank in April 2014, began play in 2017 and captured the MLS Cup in only its second in 2018. The facility also hosts other premier sports and entertainment events throughout the year.

"Our goal all along has been for Mercedes-Benz Stadium to become a destination site for sports and entertainment guests from all over the world," Blank stated. "We not only want Mercedes-Benz Stadium to become a landmark for the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia, we want it to be a game changer when it comes to stadium design and the guest experience inside the building where friends and families can come together and create special memories."

Mercedes-Benz Stadium and the city of Atlanta hosted Super Bowl LIII in February of 2019. This was the first time the city of Atlanta hosted a Super Bowl since 2000.

NFL commissioner Roger Goodell praised the city of Atlanta for their effort in making sure everything went well during the week of the Super Bowl.

"The enthusiasm, the hospitality and the desire to make sure that they put Atlanta on the big stage in a way that will show incredibly well, Goodell said. "As it related to when we are going to come back, as you know they've become more competitive for cities to host the Super Bowl, which we think that is great."

On top of Super Bowl LIII, Mercedes-Benz Stadium has attracted several marquee events to the city of Atlanta, such as the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship, the 2020 NCAA Final Four and many other events, including the CFP National Semifinal of the College Football Playoff, Chick-Fil-A Kickoff Games, SEC Championship Game and the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl.

"The Super Bowl 19 years ago not only didn't have our stadium, but it didn't have the National Center for Human Rights Museum, didn't have the Aquarium, didn't have the College Football Hall of Fame, didn't have the Children's Museum, didn't have the World of Coke," Blank said. "Those all speak to what Atlanta has done to earn every national event we've had. So it's not just about the Super Bowl. It's about the college national championship game we had last year, Super Bowl this year, Final Four next year. That has nothing to do with me. It has to do with Atlanta, and it has to do with the commitments that many people have made to this city."

The Falcons officially opened Mercedes-Benz Stadium with a 34-23 win over the Green Bay Packers on NBC's Sunday Night Football in Week 2 of the 2017 season. The club would go on to post a 5-3 record at home in its first season at MBS, setting a franchise record for attendance with 554,119 fans passing through the building during its inaugural season.

Blank's imaginative approach to the stadium experience has truly created the finest sports and entertainment facility in the world. Using the core values his businesses are founded on as guiding principles, Blank listened to what fans desired most and responded with a fan first, world-class experience in the heart of downtown Atlanta.

In 2018, Sports Business Journal named the Mercedes-Benz Stadium Food & Beverage Experience the Sports Breakthrough of the Year. The innovative approach to pricing, quality, value, and selection helped move the Falcons from 18th in the league in 2016 to 1st in the NFL in 2017 for food and beverage. MBS also ranked 1st in Major League Soccer over the same period.

Although Blank's original vision to create a fan first pricing menu was originally seen as a crazy idea, the results have been tremendous and a game-changer in the sports and entertainment industry. In 2019, Blank and his staff continued to listen to fans feedback and cut the prices on stadium food down even further to become even more affordable.

"Arthur Blank repeatedly challenges us to find innovative ways to further improve operations across our businesses," said AMB Group CEO Steve Cannon. "As we've always said, it is incumbent on us to listen and respond to our fans and we've heard that value, quality, and speed of service are incredibly important; therefore, we've again made operational adjustments that address each of these areas."

The innovation continues in 2019 as Mercedes-Benz Stadium became the first NFL or MLS stadium to go cashless, speeding up transactions and shortening waits at concession stands and merchandise shops.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE & IMPROVING LIVES

Starting with The Home Depot and continuing with his current businesses – the Falcons, PGA TOUR Superstore, Mountain Sky Guest Ranch, West Creek Ranch, Atlanta United and The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation – Blank's business and personal values underscore the importance of giving back and becoming part of the community.

During his 23 years with The Home Depot, the company donated more than $113 million to communities, and Home Depot associates provided hundreds of thousands of hours of personal volunteer time.

Since its inception in 1995, The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation has granted more than $400 million to charitable organizations, with approximately two-thirds of the total focused on metro Atlanta, including the Historic Westside neighborhoods of Vine City, English Avenue, and Castleberry Hill.

In 2013, Blank publicly committed to making further significant investments in these communities by creating the Westside Neighborhood Prosperity Fund, which invests in catalytic projects that ignite positive change and improve the quality of life in the neighborhoods surrounding Mercedes-Benz Stadium. The foundation has pledged $30 million to contribute to large-scale transformational projects that result in lasting impact for community residents.

In 2014, Blank's foundation launched its first major project, Westside Works, a long-term neighborhood-based program focused on creating job training and employment opportunities for residents. Westside Works placed nearly 200 men and women in living wage jobs in construction, health care, culinary arts and auto technician sectors during its first 12 months of operation.

"We've been committed to the Westside neighborhoods for many years," Blank noted. "Building a new stadium is the relatively easy part of our overall project in that area; the larger challenge is in having a positive and meaningful impact on the surrounding communities in the process. My family, along with the Falcons, feels a sense of responsibility to be part of that positive change."

Community engagement is a priority for the Falcons, as well. The Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation invests in innovative approaches to increase time kids spend in physical activity and to give more children access to healthy foods. Since 2002, the foundation has awarded more than $20 million in grants to nonprofit organizations serving children across Georgia. In partnership with Good Sports, the foundation also has donated over $1,380,000 worth of sports equipment to 325 organizations across 110 counties in Georgia, expanding opportunities for 114,000 youth to be physically active.

As a leader in the Georgia SHAPE initiative, the youth foundation is helping Georgia elementary schools reach more than 350,000 students through the Power Up for 30 program, which adds 30 minutes of physical activity during the school day. To date since 2013, 881 elementary schools have engaged in Power Up for 30, resulting in 1,898 teachers and administrators receiving direct professional development and more than 467,626 Georgia elementary school students impacted. Georgia middle schools and out-of-school-time organizations can now also join the movement!

In addition, Atlanta Falcons players, coaches, cheerleaders, associates and their spouses remain among the most active community citizens in the NFL, contributing an average of 3,000 hours of their collective time each season. Much of this time is spent participating in Atlanta Falcons community relations programs and initiatives that support a variety of issues and activities, including health and fitness, breast cancer awareness, combating hunger, the development of youth/prep football, Salute to Service and outreach in underserved communities.

With Blank part of a select group of owners that lead the NFL's Social Justice Initiative working group, the Atlanta Falcons have strived to be among the league's leaders in social justice action. Beginning in the spring of 2018, a player-led Social Justice Committee developed a plan for reform at the local level and took immediate action, creating a calendar of events that made an impact on the local community. The group identified three pillars for making a difference in the community: Criminal Justice Reform, Police/Community Relations and Education and Economic Advancement.

In addition to a number of events throughout the community the following year, the Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation approved $500,000 for grants to match player contributions that support social justice work in 2019.

"It's important that everyone in our family of businesses understands our collective responsibility to contribute to the communities in which we all live and work," Blank stressed.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

A native of Sunnyside, N.Y., Blank attended Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan, where he competed on the football, baseball and track teams. Blank co-founded The Home Depot in 1978 and retired from the company as co-chairman in 2001. At the time of his retirement, The Home Depot was a component of the Dow Jones Industrial Average and one of Fortune Magazine's "Global Most Admired Companies." Individuals are selected as honorary commanders because of their position or influence in the community, and their ability to foster awareness and public support for the military and its service members. In 2016, 2017 and 2018, the NFL's Salute to Service winners were all members of the Atlanta Falcons, reflective of the owner and team's commitment to giving back to America's armed forces and their families.

Steve Cannon was named chief executive officer of AMB Group, LLC in December of 2015, assuming the day-to-day leadership of the company's for-profit businesses. Cannon leads all business operations of the National Football League's Atlanta Falcons, Atlanta United of Major League Soccer, Mercedes-Benz Stadium, PGA TOUR Superstore and Mountain Sky Guest Ranch. He is also on the Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation's board of directors.

Since his start with the AMB Group, Cannon's leadership has played a part in Mercedes-Benz Stadium being named the Sports Business Journal Sports Facility of the Year in 2019. Cannon oversaw MBUSA's successful headquarters relocation from New Jersey to the metro Atlanta area, in addition to crafting a sports sponsorship strategy that closely aligned the premium brand with properties reflective of its category leadership and brand position.

Cannon began his automotive career in 1991 as executive assistant to the president and CEO of Mercedes-Benz of North America (predecessor to MBUSA). From there, he moved to Stuttgart, Germany and joined a small team tasked with the development, manufacturing and launch of the M-Class, the first Mercedes-Benz SUV ever made in, and for this market. RICH MCKAY

PRESIDENT & CEO

Falcons President and CEO, Rich McKay, has been a fixture in the National Football League for more than 30 years. One of the League's most influential executives, McKay is entering his 16th season with the Atlanta Falcons. During McKay's tenure, the Falcons have been to the playoffs seven times, been to three NFC Championship games and participated in Super Bowl LI. McKay was hired by Owner and Chairman Arthur M. Blank in 2004 and served his first four years as the team's general manager. He was promoted to president and chief executive officer in 2011. That same year, national columnist and creator of Monday Morning Quarterback (MMQB), Peter King, named McKay number 10 out of the 100 most influential people in the NFL.

McKay was the point person in the negotiation, development, and building of Mercedes-Benz Stadium, a process that began in earnest in 2008. Working closely with Blank, the city of Atlanta, the state of Georgia, and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority, McKay helped to secure approval and financing for Mercedes-Benz Stadium and created a true public-private partnership. The club broke ground on Mercedes-Benz Stadium on May 19, 2014, and it was completed in August of 2017 and serves as the home of the Atlanta Falcons and Atlanta United. He is the only executive to have led two successful stadium negotiations (Atlanta and Tampa Bay). In April of 2014, McKay was named President of AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) which oversees the Falcons, Atlanta United and Mercedes-Benz Stadium.

McKay has served as a member of the NFL's Competition Committee for the past 26 years, which is longer than any member has ever served. He has been co-chairman and then chairman for the past 22 years (co-chairman 1998-2011 and chairman 2011-current). The eight-member committee is comprised of NFL head coaches and League executives who study the game and recommend rule changes and modifications to ensure player safety while promoting competitiveness. The Competition Committee has recommended and passed over fifty (50) player safety rules changes since 2002. In addition to his commitment to advancing the game, McKay has been involved in the negotiation of collective bargaining agreements with the National Football League Players Association and was highly involved in the negotiations that led to the current multi-year collective bargaining agreement signed in 2011.

Prior to joining the Falcons, McKay spent 10 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, serving as general manager. While serving as general manager for Tampa Bay (1994-2003) and Atlanta (2004-2008), McKay was the architect of a Super Bowl winning team (Super Bowl XXXVII) as well as six teams that reached the playoffs and three that advanced to the NFC Championship game. During his 15 seasons in the General Manager role, his teams compiled an overall record of 112-96 with a playoff record of 6-5. As a GM, McKay worked with three different NFL head coaches who have guided their respective teams to NFC Championship games – Tony Dungy in 1999 with Tampa Bay, Jon Gruden in 2002 with Tampa Bay and Jim Mora in 2004 with Atlanta.

McKay's personnel scouting acumen was a successful formula which produced 59 players that played in the Pro Bowl during his time as an NFL General Manager. McKay showed his eye for talent when he drafted eight players in the 1997 draft class that went on to play a combined 1,175 games, with 772 starts over their careers. Those players helped contribute to Tampa Bay's 41 Pro Bowl selections between 1997 through 2002, which were the most in the NFL. To put it into perspective, the Buccaneers only had 19 Pro Bowl selections in the first 21 years of their history leading up to 1997. Additionally, 11 of McKay's former lieutenants have risen through the ranks to sit in the general manager's chair at other NFL franchises.

While many of the players McKay drafted developed into Pro Bowl performers on the field, several have been stars in their community. Atlanta Falcons Limited Partner Warrick Dunn, whom McKay drafted in 1997 with Tampa Bay, was the recipient of the 2004 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award. This award is presented annually to the NFL's most philanthropic player. Derrick Brooks, who was also a draft selection of McKay's, was also a co-recipient of the award in 2000.

The McKay family is one of the most successful football families with substantial roots in both the collegiate and professional game. Rich's late father, the legendary John McKay, led the University of Southern California Trojans to four national championships in 16 seasons. Rich's older brother J.K. McKay, was a starting wide receiver for the Trojans and part of two national championship teams (1972 & 1974) in addition to playing in three Rose Bowl games while playing for his father. Between the three McKay's, they have won six national championships, participated as a player or coach in 12 Rose Bowls, participated as a coach, player or team executive in six NFL conference championship games, won two National Collegiate Coach of the Year Awards, won one XFL Championship as a general manager, and won one Super Bowl as a general manager. The McKay football roots are continuing to grow, as Rich's son John reached Super Bowl LIII in Atlanta working as a Pro Scout for the Los Angeles Rams.

Both Coach McKay and Rich saw their first draft picks selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Lee Roy Selmon was the first pick for John McKay as a head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1976 while Warren Sapp was the first pick for Rich McKay in 1995. After the enshrinement of Sapp and Derrick Brooks, Rich McKay became the first and only general manager in NFL history to have his first two draft picks go on to be first-ballot members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

McKay earned his Bachelor's degree in Economics in 1981 from Princeton University, graduated from Stetson's College of Law in 1984, clerked for two years for Tampa's U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges, and was inducted into the Stetson Law's Hall of Fame on November 2014. McKay worked at the Tampa law firm of Hill, Ward, and Henderson, P.A., from 1986-1992 where he served as General Counsel for the Buccaneers. Born March 16, 1959, in Eugene, Oregon, McKay grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa's Jesuit High School.

As an avid long-distance runner, Rich has participated in and finished six marathons including two New York City Marathons, an Atlanta Marathon, and the Los Angeles in Marathon in 2013 and in 2016, and the 2019 San Diego marathon.

McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons; Hunter, a 2012 graduate of Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama who is now employed in the Sports Information Office at Kennesaw State University in Kennesaw, Ga., and John, a 2015 graduate of the University of Southern California is a pro scout with the Los Angeles Rams.

THOMAS DIMITROFF

GENERAL MANAGER

'16 '10 '12 '16

One of the longest-tenured general managers in the NFL, Thomas Dimitroff has held his post since 2008. A two-time Executive of the Year honoree by Sporting News (2008 & 2010), Dimitroff has been the architect of the most successful run in franchise history. During his tenure, the Falcons have posted a 102-74 regular-season record and the eighth-best winning percentage in the NFL over that span. Atlanta is one of seven teams in the league with 100-or-more wins between 2008-2018.

Over the last four seasons, Dimitroff and Head Coach Dan Quinn have crafted a roster focused on fast, physical, and urgent athletes. This team-building approach spurred the Falcons to playoff wins in consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history, including an NFC title and Super Bowl appearance for the second time in club annals.

During his time in Atlanta, the Falcons posted five consecutive winning seasons from 2008-2012 and three straight playoff berths (2010-12) - a first in franchise history. The club has made six postseason appearances and has added cornerstone players; QB Matt Ryan, WR Julio Jones, CB Desmond Trufant, T Jake Matthews, OLB Vic Beasley, RB Devonta Freeman, S Keanu Neal, LB Deion Jones, LB De'Vondre Campbell, TE Austin Hooper, and WR Calvin Ridley in the draft.

The Falcons entered the 2018 campaign looking to build on the momentum of consecutive playoff appearances but would have their resolve and resiliency tested earlier than expected. Despite the loss of significant contributors and a rocky start to the season, the Falcons battled to finish the year with a 7-9 record.

A testament to the players that Dimitroff and Quinn have brought in and the culture that the teambuilding duo has fostered. Atlanta bounced back from a five-game skid with three straight wins to end the season. The Falcons swept the season series with divisional foes Carolina and Tampa Bay to finish second in the NFC South.

Statistics bare the talent that Dimitroff and Quinn have assembled but there is no doubting the disappointment felt within the halls of the team's Flowery Branch training facility and in the seats at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. Following the conclusion of the 2018 season, Dimitroff and Quinn took a contemplative and introspective look at the team, vowed to make the difficult lessons learned count, and set out to build the 2019 Atlanta Falcons.

That process began with a revamped coaching staff that saw Quinn take over the role of defensive coordinator as well as the addition of veteran coaches Dirk Koetter, Ben Kotwica, Bob Sutton, and Mike Mularkey. Dimitroff and his staff utilized the free agency period to add depth and experience at several significant positions, including offensive line, tight end, and defensive line. With the first phase of offseason roster construction complete, Dimitroff turned his attention to the centerpiece of his teambuilding philosophy, the NFL Draft.

Dimitroff's ardent belief in building through the draft has been a hallmark of his time in Atlanta. When he joined the Falcons in 2008, he brought a team-building philosophy centered around building the core of the roster through the draft and supplementing with key additions in free agency. He wasted little time putting that plan into place as his first draft pick would go on to reshape the franchise. With the third overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft, Dimitroff and the Falcons selected Ryan, who has been the face of the club for the last decade.

Ryan owns every significant passing record in club history and has been among the best quarterbacks in the NFL during his career. He was named the NFL MVP and selected as an All-Pro in 2016 and is the fastest player in league history to reach 40,000 passing yards.

Ryan finished the 2018 season with 4,924 passing yards, 35 touchdowns, and a 108.1 passer rating, all of which were the second-best in his career. Dimitroff will always be tied to his first draft pick and Ryan continued to prove the longtime personnel man right in 2018 as the duo became the sixth GM-QB pair to reach 100 wins together.

In the 2018 NFL Draft, Dimitroff doubled down on his investment in the offensive line. He selected Boston College guard Chris Lindstrom with the 14th overall pick. Widely considered the most pro-ready guard in the class, Lindstrom's intelligence, grit, and toughness were traits that made him a clear fit for Dimitroff and Quinn. Following the selection of Lindstrom, Dimitroff once again showed his penchant for draft day trades by dealing Atlanta's second and third-round picks to the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the 31st and 203rd overall selections.

He used the penultimate pick of the first round on Washington tackle Kaleb McGary, illustrating the commitment to improving the offensive line through action. In McGary, Atlanta got another physical player that exhibited grit and toughness throughout his college career.

The remainder of the draft featured selections that addressed specific targeted areas for Atlanta. Taken in the fourth round, Ohio State cornerback Kendall Sheffield boasts elite speed and characteristics that fit Quinn's defensive style and ability. Atlanta second of two fourth rounders, defensive end John Cominsky, hails from Dimitroff's birthplace of Barberton, Ohio and brings raw athleticism and rust-belt grit from the Division II ranks. A clear nod to the coaching ability and defensive line acumen of the head coach/defensive coordinator.

Following the draft, Dimitroff discussed the team's desire to add a big running back to the backfield. At 6-foot-2, 225 pounds, Atlanta's fifth-round selection, Qadree Ollison, fits the bill. With their second fifth-rounder, the Falcons landed Washington cornerback Jordan Miller, a long, rangy corner with good ball skills. Dimitroff closed out the draft by selecting Marcus Green from Louisiana-Monroe, a versatile player with running back, receiver, and kick return ability.

As he showed with the trade back into the first round this year, Dimitroff is never one to shy away from making a deal. He's earned the nickname 'Trader Thomas' for making at least one trade each of his drafts. His landmark acquisition came during the 2011 Draft. Feeling like the Falcons needed to get more explosive, Dimitroff orchestrated a trade with the Cleveland Browns and selected University of Alabama wide receiver Julio Jones sixth overall. Jones has gone on to become one of the top receivers in the NFL, earning two first-team All-Pro selections and six Pro Bowl selections.

In addition to the blockbuster trade that landed Jones, Dimitroff made aggressive moves to procure Deion Jones, DE Takk McKinley, NT Grady Jarrett, and CB Desmond Trufant all of whom have become crucial pieces for the Falcons.

Dimitroff's first major trade came in 2009 when he sent the team's 2010 second-round draft choice to the Kansas City Chiefs in exchange for TE Tony Gonzalez. The future Hall of Famer spent five seasons in Atlanta where his veteran leadership and tireless work ethic helped set the tone for a team that made three straight trips to the playoffs.

While the core of his team-building philosophy is centered on drafting well, Dimitroff has supplemented his draft picks by targeting specific needs through free agency. In total, five of the free agents Dimitroff has signed have earned Pro Bowl nods. One of his most successful moves was the first move he made at the helm, signing RB Michael Turner from the San Diego Chargers.

Turner burst on the scene finishing his first season as a starter with 1,699 rushing yards and 17 touchdowns – a franchise record - on his way to his first Pro Bowl selection. He also finished second in MVP voting and along with Ryan helped take the Falcons from the league's cellar to the postseason.

After turning the franchise around in 2008, Dimitroff saw Atlanta post back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in team history in 2009. Atlanta would go on to win 36 games from 2010-12, which included three straight playoff berths and one trip to the NFC Championship Game. There has never been a more successful three-year stretch in franchise history, and Dimitroff was the architect of those teams.

Dimitroff is responsible for all aspects of football operations with the Falcons and working with Quinn when constructing the roster. He has final authority over the signing of free agents, the selection of players in the draft, and trades. Dimitroff also handles coordinating other football-related activities with Coach Quinn.

Dimitroff began his scouting career as the Canadian Scouting Coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL in 1990. In 1992, he moved on to the World League of American Football, where he scouted all NFL, CFL and World League rosters while tracking player transactions for the NFL's developmental league.

After his international experience, Dimitroff moved onto the Detroit Lions as a college scout in 1994. From there, Dimitroff made his way back to Cleveland in 1998 as a college scout for the Browns for four years before landing with the Patriots in 2002.

During his five years as the director of college scouting in New England (2003-07), he was responsible for overseeing area scouts who evaluated all the nation's college prospects while scouting and tracking the development and availability of drafted players. The Patriots had a 77–17 overall record in Dimitroff's tenure and they won back to back Super Bowls in 2003 (XXXVIII) and 2004 (XXXIX) while making a historic march on a perfect 2007 regular season.

His father was a big influence on his life. Tom Dimitroff was a high school, college, and pro coach turned NFL scout - and a former NFL quarterback for the old Boston Patriots. Other key influences that have helped shape Dimitroff's philosophy today include former Falcons Assistant General Manager Scott Pioli and New England Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick.

Dimitroff captained his college team as a defensive back at the University of Guelph (Canada) from 1987–1989. He was born in Barberton, Ohio, in 1966. Thomas has one son, Mason and one daughter, Aja Neve.

Dan Quinn was named the 16th head coach in Atlanta Falcons history in February of 2015. Quinn has built his program on a three-pillar foundation; Ball, Battle, and Brotherhood. He believes these three pillars are the keys to the club's success.

The Ball is everything in Quinn's program. The offense must have regard for it and protect it together while the defense must strive to take it together. It is drilled into the team every day. It's not just a practice or game objective. It is a mindset.

Battle; how we do anything is how we do everything. Quinn instills this through competition at every opportunity and challenges his players to obsess the details in everything together. How something is done in practice or meetings is how it will be done in the heat of the moment, so the Falcons will battle every day to be prepared for the moment together.

Brotherhood is the connection to one another that separates us from others. Quinn strives to build the best culture in sports and the bond that is created between brothers is what makes that possible.

In four seasons, he has compiled a 36-28 regular season record with two postseason appearances, while leading the club to an NFC title and its second Super Bowl appearance in 2016.

The Falcons finished their 2018 campaign with a 7-9 record. Although the Falcons had a rocky season, Quinn rallied the squad to win the last three games of the season to finish second in the NFC South and complete the season sweep against the Carolina Panthers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Under Quinn's leadership, the team sent three players to the Pro Bowl in 2018, Alex Mack, Julio Jones and Austin Hooper. Jones added another impressive season to his resume after the Alabama native led the league in receiving yards with 1,677 – second-highest of his career – while also hauling in 113 receptions and eight touchdowns. Jones recorded 10, 100-receiving yard games this season, breaking his previous franchise record of nine games (2015).

In 2018, the focus and dependence shifted to the veteran leadership of Matt Ryan among others. Ryan remained one of the positive constants for the team throughout 2018. The 11-year veteran finished the season with 4,924 passing yards, 35 touchdowns, and a 108.1 passer rating, all of which were the second-best in his career. Quinn's trust in Ryan also paid off in the offense finishing in the top-10 in total yards (sixth), passing yards (fourth), and third-down conversion percentage (fourth).

The season saw the emergence of S Damontae Kazee, who tied for the league lead in interceptions with seven, while LB De'Vondre Campbell led the team in tackles for the first time in his career. DT Grady Jarrett continued to grow into one of the premier defensive linemen in the league after posting career highs in sacks (six), hits on the quarterback (16) and forced fumbles (three).

During the offseason, Quinn hired Dirk Koetter, who will take over the play-calling for the offense and Ben Kotwica, who will oversee special teams for the 2019 season. Along with those changes, Quinn will also take over the defensive play-calling responsibilities for the first time since 2016.

The Falcons battled their way through the 2017 season, finishing with a 10-6 record, marking the third time that the club has posted back-to-back seasons of 10-or-more wins. The Birds came out of the gate hot, winning their first three games, including the inaugural game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium with a 34-23 win over the Green Bay Packers. Following the quick start, Atlanta would struggle through the next month dropping four of its next five games. Despite this stumble, the resilient mindset that Quinn instilled in his team helped the club rattle off five wins over its next seven games leading to a win-and-in scenario in Week 17.

The battle-hardened Falcons turned in an impressive performance in the season finale, coming away with a 22-10 win over the Panthers to lock up a second-straight postseason berth. Atlanta went into its Wild-Card matchup as an underdog as they faced the Los Angeles Rams and the NFL's top-scoring offense. Bolstered by tone-setting special-teams play, Quinn's veteran offense found its footing while the young defense shined in a 26-13 win. The Falcons ultimately fell short in the NFC divisional game, losing to the eventual Super Bowl champion Philadelphia Eagles, 15-10, in a tightly contested game.

This team produced four Pro Bowlers in 2017: Julio Jones, Mack, Deion Jones, and Neal. Julio Jones and Mack were each named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth time in their careers. The pair also each earned second-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Meanwhile, Deion Jones and Neal were named to their first Pro Bowl squads in only their second seasons.

While the young defense improved over the course of the 2016 season, Quinn knew that the unit possessed the necessary pieces for a sizable jump in 2017. Quinn's faith was rewarded as the combination of veteran leaders and emergent young talent allowed 52.8 fewer yards per game ('16 - 371.2; '17 - 318.4) and surrendered 166 fewer offensive points last season.

Atlanta's defense jumped from 25th in 2016 to ninth in 2017 in yards per game and went from 27th to eighth in points per game. One of the major points of emphasis going into the 2017 season was red zone defense. In 2016, Atlanta ranked last in the NFL allowing touchdowns on 72.7 percent of its opponents' possessions. The work the defensive unit did in red zone situations serves as a prime example of Quinn's focus on the details. The Falcons made a radical improvement in red zone defense last season, vaulting up to fifth in the NFL with opponents finding the end zone on just 45.8 percent of possessions inside the 20.

The 2016 season saw Quinn in his first playoff appearance as a head coach. He dispatched his former team, the Seattle Seahawks, in the divisional round before closing the Georgia Dome with a 44-21 defeat of the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Championship game. Despite falling to the New England Patriots, 34-28, in the NFL's first Super Bowl decided by overtime, Quinn built a brotherhood poised to challenge the NFC's top echelon teams for years to come.

That season, Quinn's leadership helped produce six Pro Bowlers, including Ryan, running back Devonta Freeman, wide receiver Julio Jones, Mack, outside linebacker Vic Beasley Jr. and placekicker Matt Bryant. Ryan became the first player in franchise history to be named NFL MVP and joined Jones and Beasley as Associated Press first-team All-Pros. Additionally, Quinn earned the NFL's Salute to Service award for his commitment to honoring and supporting the armed services and the military community.

Quinn's influence on Atlanta's young defense was clearly seen in 2016 as several first and second-year players filled key roles on the unit. His impact was perhaps clearest on Beasley, who took the NFL's sack crown with 15.5 in his second year in the league – the second-most by a Falcon in a single season since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Quinn's defensive line pedigree also helped lead to the emergence of Jarrett who tied a Super Bowl record by sacking Tom Brady three times in the Super Bowl. While second-year players like Beasley and Jarrett emerged as playmakers, last season's rookie class also made an instant impact. First-round pick Neal and second-rounder Deion Jones were both strong candidates for defensive rookie of the year after finishing as the top two tacklers among first-year players.

Atlanta's young and improving defense was buoyed by the NFL's top-scoring offense in 2016. The Falcons captured their fourth NFC South title and secured the NFC's second seed in the playoffs following an 11-5 season. While the offense fired on all cylinders, Quinn's defense showed great strides over the final month of the season. Atlanta allowed 25.7 points per game for its first 11 games last season. Over the final five games of the regular season, that number dropped to just 20.8 points per game. In playoffs, the defense held the Seahawks and Packers to 20 and 21 points on the way to winning the NFC title.

Despite falling just short of reaching NFL's pinnacle in 2016, Quinn began 2017 with Everest mountaineering metaphor. His team had made a summit push and was forced back from the 29,000 ft. peak, but not all the way to zero, not to sea level. The Falcons opened the offseason at basecamp, some 12,000 feet from the summit, where they would begin to acclimatize for another run at the peak. Quinn focused his team on owning the process of preparing and improving.

Quinn earned his head coaching opportunity after becoming one of the NFL's top defensive coordinators. His philosophy centers around players that possess speed and physicality. The focus on these two traits has helped Atlanta revamp its defense and strengthen its offense. Quinn's willingness to put his young defensive players on the field has seen the Falcons emerge as one of the league's top units.

In his first season at the helm, Quinn led the team to a 5-0 start, becoming the first coach in franchise history to begin his career with five straight wins. Despite a mid-season slump, Quinn rallied the Falcons to wins in two of their final three games to close out the season with an 8-8 record. His defensive background was crucial in helping Atlanta improve from 32nd in total defense to 16th over one year.

Quinn took over the club after serving as the Seattle Seahawks defensive coordinator for two seasons (2013-14), helping guide them to consecutive Super Bowl appearances. During that span, Quinn oversaw the NFL's top defensive unit as Seattle led the League allowing 270.4 yards per game, 15.2 points per game and 178.8 passing yards per game while holding opponents to 91.6 rushing yards per game.

In 2014, Quinn's defense led the NFL in scoring defense (15.9), total defense (267.1), and passing yards (185.6), while ranking third in rushing yards (81.5). The Seahawks also boasted the League's top defensive unit in 2013, en route to a win over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII.

Quinn originally joined the Seahawks in 2009, after spending the previous six years coaching the defensive lines for the San Francisco 49ers (2003-04), Miami Dolphins (2005-06) and the New York Jets (2007-08). He previously served as the Seahawks assistant head coach/defensive line coach in 2009 under Jim Mora.

Quinn left Seattle in 2011 to become the defensive coordinator at the University of Florida where his defenses ranked in the top-10 in the country. In his first season with the Gators, his defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (299.5), seventh in passing defense (166.8), and second in third-down defense (27.12 percent).

Prior to joining Seattle, Quinn coached the defensive line for the New York Jets from 2007-2008. In, 2008 the Jets defense ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per carry (3.7), seventh in sacks (41) and ninth in rushing yards per game (94.9). The Jets were also sixth in the AFC in yards per play (5.2) and third-down defense (38.6).

He held the same position for the Miami Dolphins for two seasons (2005-06), where Quinn helped the Dolphins rank first in the AFC and second in the NFL with 49 sacks. Miami also finished third in the AFC in yards per play (4.7) and fourth in yards per carry (3.7).

He began his NFL coaching career in San Francisco as its defensive assistant in 2001 before moving on to coach the 49ers defensive line from 2003-2004. Quinn got his start coaching the defensive line at William and Mary in 1994, followed by a season at Virginia Military Institute. He held the same position with Hofstra for four seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2000.

Quinn was a four-year letter winner and two-time co-captain at Division III Salisbury (Md.) State as a defensive lineman, where he recorded 139 tackles and eight tackles for loss. He also lettered in track and held the school record in the hammer throw. He was inducted into the Salisbury State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

Quinn's charitable foundation, Quinn's Corps, which he and his wife, Stacey, started in 2005, serves members of the military both at home and abroad. Quinn's foundation provides military families that are stateside with tickets to games while sending special care packages to soldiers that are deployed overseas.

Quinn was born in Morristown, New Jersey. He and his wife, Stacey, reside in Suwanee, Ga.

In 2019, Dirk Koetter returns to the Atlanta Falcons as the offensive coordinator after spending the last four seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. During Koetter's first year with the Bucs in 2015, he oversaw the NFL's fifth-best offense and rushing attack, while also coaching the league's second-leading rusher in Doug Martin, who rushed for 1,402 yards and six touchdowns. Koetter also had a chance to begin molding then-rookie quarterback Jameis Winston in 2015. During his rookie season, Winston accounted for 28 total touchdowns (22 passing, six rushing) and threw for 4,042 yards, which were the second-most in a single season in team history and the third-most by a rookie in NFL history.

In 2016, Koetter became the 11th head coach for the Buccaneers and in his first season, he led Tampa Bay to a 9-7 record, the team's most wins since 2010 and the second-most wins by any coach in their first season with the Buccaneers. Over three seasons as head coach, Koetter still guided the offense, leading them to the NFL's best passing attack – 294.4 yards per game – and the sixth-best total offense – 375.1 – over that period.

Koetter's first stop in Atlanta came in 2012 when he was tasked to call plays for the offense for the next three seasons. In Koetter's first two years, he helped a younger Matt Ryan take the next step in his evolution. Ryan posted several single-season career and franchise records including passing yards, touchdowns, and completion percentage. The combination of Koetter and Ryan over three seasons guided the Falcons offense to the fourth-ranked passing attack (292.0 ypg) and the 10th ranked scoring offense (24.0 ppg) in the NFL from 2012-14. Wide receiver Julio Jones also experienced a breakout year in 2012 under Koetter, setting career-bests – at the time – in receptions (79), receiving yards (1,198) and touchdowns (10) in only his second season.

Before his time in Atlanta, Koetter was the offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-11). During the 2010 campaign, Koetter led an offense that saw RB Maurice Jones-Drew lead the NFL in rushing with 1,606 yards on 343 carries. In five seasons in Jacksonville, he coached four different players to six Pro Bowl selections, including Jones-Drew who earned three trips to the Pro Bowl.

Koetter became the head coach of the Arizona State Sun Devils in 2001, spending six years in the position. He led Arizona State to four bowl games in his six seasons and finished with a 40-34 record. While also serving as offensive coordinator, Koetter helped the Sun Devils average nearly 30 points per game over six seasons and the team was ranked in the top-20 in the nation in passing offense in five of his six seasons.

Prior to taking over at ASU, Koetter spent three seasons as head coach at Boise State where he compiled a 26-10 mark and two consecutive bowl victories. He was a two-time Big West Coach of the Year honoree and two-time conference champion.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Koetter played four seasons at Idaho State (1978-81) as the team won a Division I-AA national championship. Following his graduation, he became head coach at age 23 at Highland High School, where he compiled a career record of 19-4 and won the 1984 state championship.

Koetter spent the 1985 season as offensive coordinator at San Francisco State and from 1986-88 as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Texas El-Paso. Prior to taking over at Boise State, Koetter served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Missouri from 1989-93 and offensive coordinator at Boston College (1994-95) and Oregon (1996-97).

Koetter, 60, and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Kaylee and Kendra, and two sons, Derek and Davis.

Raheem Morris is entering his 17th year of NFL coaching experience while going into his fifth year with the Atlanta Falcons – third year as the assistant head coach/wide receivers coach.

During Morris' first year in Atlanta, he was named the Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Passing Game Coordinator, where he helped out with the secondary and how to stop the passing attacks of the opposing teams. The defense only allowed 19 passing touchdowns, which was tied for the third lowest total in the League that season. The defense also forced 15 interceptions in that season, which ranked within the top 10 in the League. These numbers gave the defense a 1.27 touchdown to interception ratio, which was the seventh-best TD/Int ratio in the NFL in 2015.

During the 2016 offseason, Morris transitioned to the offensive side of the ball and was named the assistant head coach/wide receivers coach. In his first season coaching the wide receivers, Morris coached one of the best receivers in the game in Julio Jones. Jones recorded 1,409 receiving yards, which was second in the NFL in 2016. His entire receiving group teamed up for 223 catches for 3,226 yards and 22 touchdowns. Taylor Gabriel recorded a career-high six receiving touchdowns and Mohamed Sanu tallied a career-high 59 receptions.

During Morris' second year as the wide receivers coach in 2017, his receivers pulled in 214 receptions for 2,848 yards and 13 touchdowns. Morris' coaching played a hand in Sanu topping a new career high for receptions, a mark he set the previous year under Morris' teaching. Sanu finished the year with 67 receptions for 703 yards and tied a career high with five touchdown receptions.

Morris also oversaw another impressive year from Jones, who was selected to go to his fourth straight Pro Bowl after hauling in 88 receptions for 1,444 yards and three touchdowns.

In 2018, Morris' coaching played a part in helping the offensive average 290.8 passing yards per game, the fourth-best average in the league. The passing attack continued to improve from 2017 to 2018, with the offense averaging 50 more passing yards per game and totaling 15 more passing touchdowns in the year span.

Morris continued to help work with the wide receiver group in 2018 and played a part in helping coach rookie wide receiver Calvin Ridley, who led all rookies in receiving yards (821) and touchdowns (10).

Morris' continued work Sanu helped the seven-year vet reach a career high in receiving yards as well. Sanu's 838 receiving yards was the first time in his career the New Jersey native topped 800+ receiving yards.

Morris' coaching assisted in another great year from six-time Pro Bowler, Julio Jones. Jones recorded 1,677 receiving yards, which was the second highest total in his career. Jones also hauled in 113 passes, which was the third time in his career that he's posted 100+ receptions in a season.

Morris joined the Falcons after spending three seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Washington Redskins. In 2012, he helped Washington's defense finish tied for fifth in the NFL with 31 takeaways. The Redskins scored four defensive touchdowns in 2012, including two from the secondary. Morris oversaw a unit that tied a league-high with 94 passes defensed and ranked fifth in the NFC with a 3.3 interception rate.

Prior to arriving in Washington, Morris spent three seasons as the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2009-2011. He was the league's youngest head coach in 2009 and in 2010, his team finished with a 10-6 record. The Buccaneers made their best turnaround in franchise history in 2010 after going 3-13 in 2009.

Morris served in multiple capacities with the Buccaneers during two different stints with the team before he was promoted to head coach. He spent two seasons as the team's defensive backs coach from 2007-08, during which time the Buccaneers allowed only ranked second in the NFL allowing 170.5 passing yards per game. During that span, the Buccaneers ranked among the League leaders with 22 interceptions.

He spent one year as the defensive coordinator at Kansas State in 2006, where he helped seven Wildcats conference honors. Morris' unit featured two first-team All-Big 12 selections and one second-team honoree.

Morris made his NFL coaching debut with Tampa Bay as a defensive quality control coach in 2002, when the club won Super Bowl XXXVII. The Buccaneers defense allowed an NFL-low 12.3 points per game, the third-best scoring defense since 2000. He served as a defensive assistant with the Bucs in 2003 and as assistant defensive backs coach from 2004-05.

In 10 seasons in Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers finished fifth in total defense five times, while leading the League in 2002 and 2005. He also helped the team finish as the top-rated pass defense three times (2002, 2004 & 2007).

Morris began his collegiate coaching career an assistant coach at Hofstra in 1998, where he was responsible for coaching the offensive scout team, developing scouting reports, and video breakdown. He moved on to Cornell University as defensive backs coach and special teams assistant for the 1999 season. Morris served as defensive backs coach at Hofstra from 2000 to 2001 before joining the Buccaneers. He also held a defensive minority internship position with the New York Jets in the fall of 2001. Morris played safety at Hofstra from 1994-97 and received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. He is an Irvington, N.J. native.

Jerome Henderson enters his fourth season as the Falcons defensive passing game coordinator/secondary coach.

In Henderson's third year with the Falcons in 2018, the defense recorded 15 interceptions, tied for the ninth-most in the league and tallied 72 passes defensed. Henderson helped coach second-year safety Damontae Kazee, who enjoyed a breakout season, after being tied for the NFL lead with seven interceptions.

In 2017, Henderson helped coach a defense that only allowed 6.7 passing yards per attempt, which was below the league average of 7.0 passing yards per attempt. The pass defense also saw a jump from year one to year two under Henderson's leadership, as the defense only allowed 232.8 passing yards per game, which marked the Falcons as the 11th best pass defense in the NFL last season. The pass defense also held two teams to under 200 passing yards this season

In Henderson's first year with the Falcons in 2016, he helped coach a young defense that ended the season ranked in the top five in interceptions returned for touchdowns (three). Also, the team's 279 interception return yards ranked third in the NFL last season. The Falcons defense also recorded 89 passes defensed in 2016, which also ranked third in the league.

Before coming to Atlanta, Henderson spent the last four seasons as the Dallas Cowboys' secondary coach and brings nine years of NFL coaching experience to Atlanta. In 2015, he oversaw a secondary that limited opponents to 227 passing yards per game, which ranked fifth in the NFL. Henderson's unit surrendered 19 passing touchdowns last season, tied for the third-fewest in the NFL, and 29 passes of 25-plus yards, which ranked ninth. Under Henderson's guidance, rookie safety Byron Jones was graded as the Cowboys top defensive back and one of the club's top defensive players by Pro Football Focus.

In 2014, Henderson saw his unit improve in passing yards allowed, yards per attempt, interceptions, passing touchdowns, and passes of 25-plus yards. During the 2013 season, he led the defensive backfield as the entire unit made the switch from a 3-4 defense to a 4-3 scheme. n his first season in Dallas, Henderson was tasked with integrating two new starting corners in first-round draft choice Morris Claiborne and veteran free agent Brandon Carr. Carr led the team in interceptions with three - returning one for a touchdown - while Claiborne picked off one pass and had a fumble returned for a touchdown.

Prior to arriving in Dallas, the former Clemson Tiger spent three seasons as a secondary coach in Cleveland where his defensive backs recorded seven of the club's nine interceptions in 2011 and finished second in the NFL in passing defense. He was instrumental in the development of cornerback Joe Haden and safety T.J. Ward, both of whom were consensus All-Rookie selections in 2010.

Before his stint in Cleveland, Henderson spent three seasons as a member of the New York Jets coaching staff. Leading the defensive backs in 2008, Henderson saw cornerback Darrelle Revis earn a Pro Bowl berth after leading the team with five interceptions. He split duties as an assistant defensive backs coach and director of player development in 2007 after originally joining the club as the director of player development in 2006.

Henderson was selected by the New England Patriots in the second round of the 1991 NFL Draft. He played eight seasons in the NFL as a defensive back with four different teams, including the Patriots (1991-93, 1996), Buffalo Bills (1993-94), Philadelphia Eagles (1995), and Jets (1997-98). He appeared in 98 games with 34 starts and recorded nine career interceptions. Henderson played in Super Bowl XXVIII with the Bills and Super Bowl XXXI as a member of the Patriots.

Henderson grew up in Statesville, N.C., and went on to play four years at Clemson University (1987-90). He and his wife, Traci, have three children, Jazmin and twins Taylor and Tyler.

Dave Brock is entering his third season with the Falcons – first as the running backs coach. Last season, during his time as the wide receiver coach, Brock saw Julio Jones, Mohamed Sanu, and Calvin Ridley each post 800+ receiving yards. Only one other NFL team had a trio of receivers record 800+ receiving yards in a single season in 2018 – Tampa Bay.

Brock oversaw a Pro Bowl season from Jones, who led the NFL with 1,677 receiving yards and caught eight touchdown passes, marking his second-best single-season statistics in both categories. Brock's work with Ridley before and during the season helped the rookie have an impressive first year. Ridley led all rookies in receiving yards (821) and touchdowns (10). Brock also oversaw a career year from Sanu, who recorded a career-high 838 receiving yards.

Under Brock, the receiving corps totaled 273 receptions for 3,725 yards and 25 receiving touchdowns in 2018.

In his first year in Atlanta, Brock assisted Raheem Morris with the wide receivers. Their receiving group pulled in 214 receptions for 2,848 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Brock joined the Falcons after a four-year stint as the head coach for the University of Delaware. Before joining the Blue Hens, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Rutgers. Brock has been a collegiate coach for 29 years, with stops at Kansas State (2007-08), North Carolina (2005-06), Temple (2002-04), Hofstra (1995-02), Salisbury (1988-90, 1994), and West Connecticut State (1991-93). Knapp has coached six individual 4,000-yard passers in 24 years in the NFL. Under Knapp's guidance, Ryan completed 69.4-percent of his passes, which was the fourth-highest completion percentage in 2018. Ryan protected the ball extremely well, setting a personal best low of 2.1 interception percentage in Knapp's first year as quarterbacks coach.

Knapp was most recently with the Denver Broncos where he spent he spent four seasons (2013-16). He was hired as the Broncos quarterbacks coach in 2013, but was then promoted to passing game coordinator in 2014. Under Knapp's tutelage, future Hall of Fame quarterback Peyton Manning threw for a career-high 5,477 yards and 55 touchdowns – both are NFL records.

Knapp, whose quarterbacks have combined to play in 11 Pro Bowls, has coached an unprecedented six individual 4,000-yard passers as a coordinator or position coach: Steve Young (1998), Jeff Garcia (2000), Matt Schaub (2010), Carson Palmer (2012), Peyton Manning (2013-14) and Matt Ryan (2018). In addition to his work with established NFL signal-callers, he has helped young passers like Garcia, Schaub, T.J. Yates, Brock Osweiler, and Trevor Siemian.

Knapp got his first crack in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers in 1995. He crossed paths with Head Coach Dan Quinn in San Francisco in 2001-03, when Quinn was getting his first job in the NFL and Knapp had worked his way up to becoming the offensive coordinator for the Niners. During his time as offensive coordinator, he helped develop Garcia, who made it to three Pro Bowls in 2000-02 under Knapp's leadership. He also coached Hall of Fame quarterback Young and prolific wide receiver Terrell Owens, who made it to three Pro Bowls when he was the offensive coordinator. Owens posted the highest three-year receiving yardage total of his career (3,814) while combining for 290 receptions and 39 total touchdowns for the 49ers in Knapp's offense.

The California native then moved on to Atlanta where he was the offensive coordinator from 2004-06. During his time here in the mid-2000s, Knapp coached three Pro Bowlers: TE Alge Crumpler, RB Warrick Dunn, and QB Michael Vick. Atlanta boasted the NFL's top-ranked rushing unit in all three years with Knapp overseeing the offense, including a team-record 183.7 yards per game on the ground during the 2006 campaign as Vick became the first quarterback in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Knapp went on to become the offensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders (2007-08, 2012) and the Seattle Seahawks (2009) where he linked back up with Quinn. He also spent time as the quarterbacks coach with the Houston Texans (2010-11), where he helped coach current Falcons backup quarterback Schaub. Chris Morgan is entering his fifth season with the Atlanta Falcons as the offensive line coach.

In 2018, Morgan coached an offensive line that blocked for an offense that averaged 389.1 yards per game, the sixth most yards per game in the league. The offensive line's blocking was also a major part in the offense averaging 290.8 passing yards per game, which was the fourth-highest average in the NFL.

Under Morgan's guidance, the offensive line was able to keep QB Matt Ryan upright and able to throw for 4,294 yards and 35 touchdowns. The offensive line's production made it possible for the Falcons to average 6.16 yards per play in 2018, which was the fifth-most in the NFL and the second-highest yards per play average in franchise history.

Morgan continued to oversee the growth of C Alex Mack, who was selected to his sixth Pro Bowl – his fourth straight selection. T Jake Matthews was also selected to his first Pro Bowl under Morgan's guidance in 2018 as well.

In 2017, Morgan coached an offensive line that only allowed 24 sacks, that number was tied for the third lowest amount in the NFL. Morgan's offensive line was also a catalyst for the eighth best offense in the league. The Falcons offense averaged 364.8 yards per game and blocked for QB Matt Ryan who averaged 249.4 passing yards per game, which was also the eighth highest in the league. Their blocking also helped the 10-year veteran reach his seventh straight 4,000 passing yard season.

Morgan coached Mack who was selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl after anchoring the offensive line for the second year in Atlanta. In 2017, Morgan's offense line showed their ability to sustain blocks by springing the offense for 230 big plays (plays that are 10+ yards) and allowing Ryan to average 7.8 yards per pass attempt, both of which were the fifth in their categories.

Morgan's teaching was essential in helping the offensive line block for the Falcons running backs, who averaged 4.3 yards per carry, which was eighth in the NFL in 2017. The offensive line also blocked for an offensive that was third in the NFL in explosive runs (12+ yards-or-more).

During his second season with the Falcons, Morgan's offensive line blocked for Ryan who was awarded the NFL MVP award at the end of the 2016 season. The offensive line was a major reason why the team averaged a league-high and franchise high 33.8 points per game. The Falcons broke the franchise record for most points scored in a season in Week 15, with the help of the offensive, when they scored 540 total points on the season, which tied them with the 2000 St. Louis Rams for the eighth most points scored in a season.

The offensive line blocked for Ryan who threw for a career and franchise high 4,944 yards and 38 touchdowns. Ryan also had a career-high 117.1 passer rating, which was the fifth best all-time passer rating. Morgan also helped coach Mack who was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl.

Morgan's offensive line also helped pave the way for a rushing attack that racked up 1,928 yards on the season, which was fifth in the league in 2016. Under his guidance, the offensive line blocked for Devonta Freeman, who finished in the top 10 in rushing for the second year in a row and made it to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

During his first year in 2015, his offensive line helped produce the Falcons first 1,000-yard rusher since 2011, while giving up the eighth-fewest sacks in the league last year. The offensive line also helped block for an offense that recorded 374.1 yards per game, which was seventh in the NFL.

Morgan spent the 2014 season as assistant offensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks. In 2014, Seattle used eight different starting combinations on the offensive line, including playoffs, and still led the NFL in rushing yards, recording a franchise-high 2,762 yards. In addition to leading the League in rushing last season, the Seahawks offensive line also assisted in helping Seattle lead the NFL in explosive plays (135) and explosive running plays (61) while paving the way to Super Bowl XLIX.

Prior to arriving in Seattle, Morgan served as an assistant offensive line coach with the Washington Redskins (2011-13) and Oakland Raiders (2009-10). In 2012, Morgan helped direct a unit that rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards, marking the franchise's first team rushing crown since 1933 and their clubs first NFC East title since 1999. Also during his time with the Redskins, tackle Trent Williams was selected to two consecutive Pro Bowls under Morgan's guidance in 2012 and 2013.

In 2010, Oakland ranked 10th in the NFL in yards per game (356.6) and sixth in points per game (25.6). Prior to Oakland, Morgan spent the previous five seasons coaching at the high school level in his native Texas, serving as offensive line coach, special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Westfield High School in Houston.

Morgan served as a graduate assistant and offensive line coach at the University of Idaho after two years as an assistant coach at Copperas Cove (Texas) High. He played offensive line at the University of Colorado from 1995-1999 and earned his master's degree in educational leadership at Idaho.

Mularkey returns to Atlanta as the tight ends coach and brings 24 years of coaching experience with him. The former offensive coordinator for the Falcons most recently spent two seasons as the head coach for the Tennessee Titans. In 2016, he led the Titans to their first winning season since 2011, while also sending five players to the Pro Bowl. Mularkey's unit continued to grow in his second year as head coach, as the team reached the playoffs for the first time in nine years and won their first playoff game since 2003. Also, six of his players were selected to participate in the Pro Bowl that same season.

Mularkey originally joined Tennessee's coaching staff in 2014 as the tight ends coach and in 2015, he became the team's assistant head coach/tight ends coach. During his time in that role, tight end Delanie Walker led the team in receptions and receiving yards both seasons. Walker also earned his first Pro Bowl nod in 2015 under Mularkey's guidance after catching 94 passes for 1,088 yards and six touchdowns.

Before his time in Tennessee, Mularkey spent the 2012 season as the head coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Mularkey also spent four seasons in Atlanta as the Falcons offensive coordinator. Mularkey also helped groom a young Matt Ryan when he first entered the league in 2008. Ryan was awarded the AP Rookie of the Year under Mularkey after passing for 3,440 yards and 16 touchdowns and becoming (at the time) only the second rookie quarterback ever to amass over 3,000 passing yards. In 2010, Mularkey was named the Offensive Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News.

In 2006, Mularkey was hired as Nick Saban's offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins. When Saban left for the University of Alabama in 2007, Mularkey stayed on the team's staff as the tight ends coach. That season, his tight ends caught 64 passes for 538 yards and four touchdowns.

Mularkey's first shot at being a head coach came in 2004 when he became the head coach of the Buffalo Bills, spending two seasons in that role. During his first year as head coach, Mularkey's offensive squad was seventh in the league in total offense. Before going to Buffalo, he worked in Pittsburgh for eight seasons, originally joining the staff as the team's tight ends coach for five seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2001. Mularkey was named the Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America in 2001.

The former NFL tight end got his NFL coaching start with the Tampa Buccaneers in 1994 as the tight ends coach. His first shot at coaching came at Concordia University when he was named the offensive line coach in 1993.

Mularkey was drafted in the ninth round of the 1983 draft by the San Francisco 49ers. He played nine seasons in the NFL, only playing for two teams (Vikings and Steelers). He posted 102 receptions, 1,222 receiving yards with nine touchdowns in his career.

Jeff Ulbrich is entering his fifth year as the Falcons linebackers coach.

After Pro Bowl linebacker Deion Jones was sidelined due to injury early in the 2018 season, Ulbrich coached and helped expedite the growth of rookie linebacker Foye Oluokun, who was thrown into a larger role. Ulbrich helped guide the Yale alumni to a total of 89 tackles, the fourth-most by a Falcons rookie in a single season. Ulbrich also saw more growth from third-year linebacker De'Vondre Campbell, who led the team with 94 tackles and recorded 1.5 sacks.

In 2017, Ulbrich oversaw the growth of his second-year linebackers Jones and Campbell. The tandem teamed up for 230 total tackles, three sacks, 14 passes defensed and three interceptions. Ulbrich's coaching played a part in Jones receiving his first Pro Bowl selection, after finishing tied for fourth in total tackles (138), and tying for first in interceptions among linebackers (3).

During his second year with the Falcons, Ulbrich coached Jones during his rookie year, who made an immediate impact on the defense. Jones led the team and all rookies in total tackles with 106. Also under Ulbrich's guidance, Jones recorded three interceptions, which was a team-high and ranked in the top three among all linebackers in the NFL in 2016.

Last season, Ulbrich's defensive unit was ranked third in the Pac-12 in total defense. Under his guidance, LB Eric Kendricks won the Butkus Award and the Lott IMPACT Trophy after topping the nation in solo tackles per game and finishing sixth in the country in total tackles. Kendricks also finished his career as UCLA's all-time tackles leader, breaking LB Jerry Robinson's record set between 1975 and 1978. Seven of Ulbrich's defenders earned first or second team all-conference honors and the Bruins held four opponents to less than 80 yards rushing during the 2014 campaign.

Ulbrich spent two seasons as a special teams assistant with the Seattle Seahawks (2010-11) before arriving in Westwood. Ulbrich was selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the third round (86th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft out of the University of Hawaii. He earned a starting role with the 49ers in 2001 and spent 10 seasons with the club before retiring in 2009.

Ulbrich was a two-year starter at Hawaii, where he earned All-WAC first-team selection at middle linebacker and was a team co-captain during his senior season.

2008-12	Assistant Defensive Line Coach // New Orleans Saints

Travis Jones is entering his second season as the assistant defensive line coach for the Falcons. During his first year, he helped guide the defensive line to a total of 25.5 of the team's 37.0 sacks for a loss of 201.5 yards of the team's 255.0 total yards for loss on the season, which ranked 17th in the league.

Jones spent the last five seasons as a defensive assistant and defensive line coach with the Seattle Seahawks. He joined the Seahawks in 2013, serving under then-defensive coordinator Dan Quinn, and was later promoted to senior defensive assistant in 2017. Prior to arriving in Seattle, Jones spent five seasons as an assistant defensive line coach for the New Orleans Saints. He started his coaching career with the Miami Dolphins, from 2005-07, where he worked on the same staff as Quinn.

In 2016, Jones worked with defensive end Cliff Avril who set a career-high with 11.5 sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time. He also helped defensive lineman Michael Bennett make a second-consecutive Pro Bowl appearance. The Seahawks finished the season ranking third in the NFL with 42 sacks – including double-digit sacks from second-year player Frank Clark.

Seattle led the league in rushing defense for the second straight season while allowing a franchise-record low 1,304 yards – 81.5 yards per game – in 2015. Additionally, Bennet posted a career-best 10 sacks that season.

The Seahawks advanced to a second-straight Super Bowl on the strength of their top-ranked defense.

On its way to Super Bowl XLIX, Seattle's line aided the no. 1-ranked defense by ranking third overall in rushing defense allowing only 81.5 yards per game. The unit also ranked second in the NFL in opponent rushing yards per attempt (3.4), despite the loss of stalwart Brandon Mebane midseason.

Jones' Super Bowl XLVIII-winning defensive line was one of the deepest positions on the squad in 2013. Veterans Red Bryant, Chris Clemons, and Mebane were joined by free agent additions Avril, Bennett and Tony McDaniel to improve Seattle's pass rush, always a priority in Pete Carroll's defense. Seattle ranked tied for eighth in the NFL with 44.0 sacks, the most in Carroll's four seasons as coach, as Bennett led the team with 8.5 sacks.

In 2009 with the Saints, defensive end Will Smith enjoyed his finest season as he ranked fifth in the NFL with 13.0 sacks, while the trio of Sedrick Ellis, Anthony Hargrove, and Remi Ayodele provided a solid pass rush on the interior line that played an important role in its Super Bowl XLIV victory over Indianapolis.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Jones spent three seasons with the Miami Dolphins, his first year as assistant defensive line coach and his final two seasons tutoring the outside linebackers and defensive ends. During his Dolphins tenure, the line recorded 92.0 sacks. Defensive end Jason Taylor was selected to the Pro Bowl each year and was named the 2007 NFL Defensive Player of the Year. The Dolphins ranked second in the league in sacks in 2005 and third in 2006.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Georgia, in 1997 as a graduate assistant/defensive line before moving on to Appalachian State (1998-00), Kansas (2001-02) and LSU (2003-04), where he was the defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator for the Tigers.

Jones made an immediate impact in his first year on LSU's staff as the team's defensive front played a key role in the Tigers' march to the national title. In fact, LSU's front four dominated the trenches, recording 31 of LSU's school-record 44 sacks, while also limiting opponents to only 67 yards rushing a contest, a figure that ranked first in the SEC and third nationally. During his time in Baton Rouge, Jones coached a defensive front that featured defensive tackle Chad Lavalais, a consensus All-American, a finalist for the Nagurski and Lombardi Awards and the SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

Following the 2003 BCS National Championship season, Lavalais and defensive end Marquise Hill were both selected in the NFL Draft. Defensive End Marcus Spears was also named All-SEC in 2003, a consensus All-American in 2004 and a first-round draft pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2005.

Jones was a four-year letter winner for the Bulldogs (1990-92, 94) as a defensive lineman and served as team captain as a senior, playing one season with the Baltimore Stallions of the CFL in 1995 following graduation. He earned his master's degree in 1998.

Once he got to high school, Paulsen had to choose only one to play because he didn't have time to play both club soccer and high school football. Paulsen didn't expect football to become such a large part of his life until his junior year of high school when he started receiving scholarship offers. However, choosing a college was as much about academics as it was about football. Paulsen's father graduated from MIT and his uncle graduated from Harvard. Paulsen narrowed his choices down to UCLA, Stanford, and Duke before ultimately deciding to become a Bruin. "I always wanted to go to UCLA growing up," Paulsen said in 2012. "Really it was a no-decision."
- Paulsen was an active member of the community during his six years in the Washington Redskins organization. In 2015, he hosted a flag football kickoff event for Special Olympics Virginia. RANKIN M. SMITH – TEAM FOUNDER

"He was a pioneer and a quiet leader. He was a person of great integrity and had a lot of respect from me and my predecessor, Pete Rozelle, and from all of the other owners. He was such a high quality person. He was a person on whose work you could rely on. In the 1960s he was a pioneer in bringing the NFL to Georgia, and particularly in the Southeast." – Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue

Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away from heart complications just hours before the Falcons October 26, 1997 game at Carolina. Some of the largest footprints on professional, college and high school sports in Atlanta belong to Smith, who founded the Atlanta Falcons in 1966.

Over three decades ago in the early 1960s, Smith began planting the seeds that saw professional sports finally blossom in Atlanta.

Smith was part of a group that formed "Major Sports, Inc.," with goals of pro sports franchises for Atlanta. That group helped get Atlanta Stadium built by 1965. Major Sports, Inc., later became the Stadium Authority that operated Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

Smith paid the highest price in NFL history at the time in 1965 for an NFL franchise. Former commissioner Pete Rozelle and Smith made the deal in about five minutes and the Atlanta Falcons brought the largest and most popular sport to the city of Atlanta.

Smith worked with the city, county and state to build one of the largest facilities for conventions, trade shows and other major events in the world. The spectacular Georgia Dome opened its doors in 1992, giving the Falcons one of the best fan-friendly stadiums in America. Having the Georgia Dome helped bring the Olympic games to Atlanta in 1992.

He was the catalyst and driving force in bringing the most prestigious of all sporting events, the Super Bowl, to Atlanta in 1994. The week-long fanfare and the most-watched TV sport in the world, added a huge economic value to the city and tons of free publicity to lure other events, conventions and meetings to the city. He lobbied hard to bring back the game to Atlanta in 2000.

The date June 30, 1965, will always be remembered as both a termination and a commencement in the history of Atlanta sports. For on that day the end came to the many and disparate struggles to place a professional football team in the Southeast's key metropolis. At the same time the Atlanta Falcons were born and began a storied tenure in the National Football League.

All that had gone before — the successes (an $18 million stadium to play in) and the near-misses (aborted attempts to place other franchises in the city) — was set aside for the immediate business of fielding a team in little over a year's time.

Prime mover in this task was Rankin Smith, a young insurance executive who had controlling ownership of the Falcons.

Virtually unknown to the general public before that June day, Smith immediately endeared himself to aficionados of the sport by asking a choice rhetor-ical question at a press conference following his acquisition of the franchise: "Doesn't every adult male in America want to own his own football team?" Not every adult male American has the wherewithal to swing such a deal, but it was comforting to hear that a man is capable of dreams like those of any other guy.

The day's proceedings threw the city into a happy delirium unequaled in the history of football. By the time Smith got back to his insurance office 24 hours later, there had been over 1,000 phone calls for tickets. He had to push his way through stacks of mail. By August, when a contest was completed which resulted in the nickname Falcons, a few of the avid fans even had come to blows in defense of what they believed their adopted team should be called. Several persons suggested the name "Falcons" in a contest, but a school teacher from nearby Griffin, Miss Julia Elliott, was selected winner because of her reasons: "the falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition."

By the middle of December, Smith had signed the most coveted college football player in the nation, Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis. By Christmas Eve, when the Falcons cut off a brief 54-day ticket sale requiring almost no promotion, an NFL record had been established for season tickets sold by a new club (45,000).

And in January, Smith surprised the entire athletic fraternity by naming a head coach who never had been mentioned in the perpetual stream of journalistic speculation about the job. But Green Bay Packer assistant Norb Hecker assumed his new post with vigor and immediately embraced the gigantic job of sifting — along with Director of Player Personnel Gene Cronin — a huge list of NFL players made available to the Atlanta expansion team by other teams in the league.

Finally, three men were chosen from each club and these 42 formed the nucleus of the roster Hecker had to work with when he took the team to summer training camp in Black Mountain, North Carolina in early July. Added to this group were the drafted rookies, scores of free agents and a few miscellaneous players obtained in trades. In all, Hecker and his staff were faced with evaluating over 130 men from July to September.

Then, on August 27, in Columbia, South Carolina, the Falcons recorded their first victory, defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 24–17, in a preseason game.

Once the stadium, Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was built, Atlantans felt the time was ripe to start pursuing professional football. One independent group which had been active in NFL preseason promotions in Atlanta applied for franchises in both the AFL and the NFL, acting entirely on its own with no guarantee of stadium rights. Another group reported it had deposited earnest money for a team in the AFL.

With everyone running in different directions, some local businessmen worked out a deal and were awarded an AFL franchise on June 7, 1965, contingent upon acquiring exclusive stadium rights from city officials. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who had been moving deliberately in Atlanta matters, headed on the next plane down to Atlanta to protect his league's claim on the city of Atlanta. He forced the city to make a choice between the two leagues. Of course, on that memorable June 30, Rankin Smith and the NFL were the choice.

The huge void which had been the Southeast without an NFL team was beginning to close. Fans were looking now toward Atlanta. The Falcons expect to be filling that void for a long time.

A new chapter in the history of the Atlanta Falcons began on December 6, 2001. On that day, Arthur M. Blank, the co-founder and retired co-chairman of Atlanta-based Home Depot, reached a prelim-inary agreement with the Falcons' Taylor Smith to purchase the team. In a special meeting prior to Super Bowl XXXVI in New Orleans on February 2, 2002, NFL owners voted unanimously to approve the purchase.

Rankin M. Smith was awarded, by the National Football League, a franchise for the city of Atlanta for $8.5 million. At the time there were 14 NFL franchises in existence, eight AFL clubs. Officially, Atlanta became the 23rd professional football club in existence, the 15th in the NFL prior to the merger. An average of 56,526 people filled Atlanta Stadium to watch the Falcons finish their inaugural season at 3–11. The Falcons claimed their first victory on November 20, defeating the New York Giants, 27–16, at storied Yankee Stadium. Head Coach Norb Hecker's team, at the time, became the only expansion team in history not to finish in last place. The Falcons finished in seventh place in a field of eight teams in the NFL's Eastern Conference. The Falcons' first pick in the draft, LB Tommy Nobis, was voted to the Pro Bowl and named Rookie of the Year.

1967

A disappointing second year saw the Falcons finish the season at 1–12–1. While the broad picture looked bleak, there were cameos of excellence that led to a promising future. LB Tommy Nobis was named to his second Pro Bowl and RB Junior Coffey ended the year with 722 yards to finish as the eighth leading rusher in the league and the Falcons' Most Valuable Player.

1968

Norm Van Brocklin was named to replace Norb Hecker as head coach after three games in the season. The 2–12 Falcons won twice after Brocklin's arrival and finished short by a touchdown or less in three other games. DE Claude Humphrey, the Falcons first-round draft choice, was voted NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year for his play at left end. Billy Lothridge, despite having to start at safety, won his second consecutive NFL punting championship. LB Tommy Nobis was also named to his third-straight Pro Bowl.

1969

The Falcons doubled their best victory total ending the season at 6–8. Atlanta started the season with its first victory in a season opener, a 24–12 decision, vs. San Francisco at Fulton-County Stadium. Backup QB Randy Johnson was named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for his four-touchdown effort in the Falcons' 48–31 victory over the Chicago Bears on November16. RB Harmon Wages scored three touchdowns vs. New Orleans on December 7, as he threw, caught and ran for a touchdown in a 45–17 win. The club would finish the season in its highest place yet in the Coastal Division at third. Seven Falcons were named to the Pro Bowl: RB Jim Butler, QB Bob Berry, LB Greg Brezina, K Bob Etter, T George Kunz, TE Jim Mitchell and DB Ken Reaves.

1970

The Falcons completed their fifth season at 4–8–2, but were not far away from having their first winning season as four times Atlanta led deep in the fourth quarter (vs. San Francisco, Green Bay, Los Angeles and Philadelphia) only to lose or be tied in the final moments. Quarterback Bob Berry had the franchise's first 300-yard passing game vs. the Packers on September 27 and RB Jim Butler set a new club record in rushing with 127 yards on 17 carries in the home opener vs. the 49ers on October 4. Over 30 million viewers saw the Falcons face the Dolphins in Atlanta's first game nationally on Monday Night Football with Miami prevailing, 20–7. Defensive end Claude Humphrey, T George Kunz and LB Tommy Nobis represented the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

1971

For the first time in team history, ticket prices are raised. Most seats increase in price from $6 to $7.50. Head coach Norm Van Brocklin was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina, becomes the third home of the Falcons' training camp. The Falcon uniform is also changed as the team switches to red jerseys. On November 22, Atlanta wins its first nationally- televised game with a 28–21 victory over Green Bay at home on Monday Night Football. The Falcons post their first winning season in history at 7–6–1, after WR Ken Burrow pulls in a winning touchdown pass from QB Bob Berry with 40 seconds remaining in a 24–20 victory over New Orleans on December 19 in the regular-season finale, but still do not qualify for the postseason. DE Claude Humphrey is named to his second-straight Pro Bowl.

1972

Draft rights for Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan of Auburn are obtained as the Falcons make four deals involving six veterans. RB Dave Hampton scores two touchdowns and rushes for a club record of 161 yards as the Falcons stop Los Angeles, 31–3, on October 1 for the team's first victory ever, in 11 games, over the Rams. Fellow RB Art Malone rushes for 103 yards, marking the first time in Atlanta's seven-year history that two backs

1973

Smashing 35 team records, the Falcons defeat New Orleans in the season opener, 62–7. In one of the most dramatic comebacks in the club's history, Atlanta rebounds to defeat the previously unbeaten Minnesota Vikings, 20–14, before a capacity crowd and national-television audience at Atlanta Stadium. The Falcons finish the season at 9–5 for their most wins and best record ever, but lose out for the playoffs by just one game. Rookie kicking specialist Nick Mike-Mayer, DE

Claude Humphrey, DE John Zook and T George Kunz were named to the National Football Conference Pro Bowl team on December 18.

Norm Van Brocklin is fired as head coach-general manager after eight games into the season on November 5. Marion Campbell, the Falcons' defensive coordinator since 1969, is named head coach the following day. A record low of 40,202 "no shows" is recorded at Atlanta Stadium as Los Angeles defeats the Falcons, 30–7, in sub-freezing weather on December 1. Rookie QB Kim McQuilken, making his second start of the year, leads the Falcons to a season-closing 10–3 victory over Green Bay to finish the team's record for the year at 3–11. DE Claude Humphrey and C Jeff Van Note are selected to represent Atlanta at the Pro Bowl.

1975

The Falcons trade veteran T George Kunz and a draft choice to Baltimore for the No. 1 pick in the 1975 NFL draft. Atlanta also got the Colts' sixth round choice. QB Steve Bartkowski of California, a consensus All-America, is selected by the Falcons as the No. 1 draft choice on January 28. On February 26, Pat Peppler, instrumental in the construction of two Super Bowl championships at Green Bay (1967 and 1968) and Miami (1973 and 1974), is named the Falcons' new general manager. RB Dave Hampton finally cracked the elusive 1,000-yard Club, by gaining 61 yards in the final game of the season against the Green Bay Packers. Those yards pushed his total to 1,002, making him the first back in Falcons history to gain 1,000 or more yards rushing. Atlanta ended the season at 4–10. The Falcons had two players selected to the Pro Bowl following the season: C Jeff Van Note and P John James.

1976

After the club's fourth loss in five starts, Marion Campbell is fired as head coach. Chairman of the Board Rankin M. Smith Sr. names Pat Peppler interim head coach on October 11. Atlanta exploded for 17 points in the fourth quarter to upset playoff-bound Dallas, 17–10, on Nov. 21, before 54,992 fans at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. Under Peppler, the Falcons finish the season 4–10. P John James is selected to his second straight Pro Bowl.

1977

The Falcons begin a complete revamping of the front office. On February 1, former Washington Redskin and Dallas Cowboy QB Eddie LeBaron is named General Manager and Rankin M. Smith, Jr. is named President of the team. Leeman Bennett, an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Rams for four years, is named the Falcons' head coach on February 3. During the season, the Falcons defense established a modern-day NFL record of 129 points allowed in a 14-game season, as the club finishes 7–7. The defense gains the popular nickname "The Gritz Blitz". P John James, DE Claude Humphrey and DB Rolland Lawrence are named to the Pro Bowl.

1978

On March 30, the Falcons announce plans for a new year-round training site and team headquarters to be constructed in Suwanee, Georgia. The team unveiled new uniforms, which featured silver-gray pants on August 19. The Falcons record their first ever shutout in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium on October 15, with a 14–0 defeat of Detroit. K Tim Mazzetti kicks five field goals to give Atlanta a 15–7 Monday Night victory over the Los Angeles Rams on October 30. On December 16, the Falcons clinch their first ever playoff berth when Chicago defeats Washington as the Falcons close out the season with a 9–7 record. QB Steve Bartowski throws two touchdown passes in the final eight minutes to spark a 14–13 Atlanta win vs. Philadelphia in the NFC Wild card Playoff Game on December 24 for the Falcons first-ever playoff victory. The Falcons lose the next week in the Divisional Playoff Game 27–20 at Dallas after squandering a 20–13 halftime lead.

1979

Rookie RB William Andrews establishes a new club single game rushing record with a 167-yard performance at New Orleans on September 2, in his NFL debut. On September 16, QB Steve Bartkowski sets a new franchise record for single game passing with 326 yards on 20 of 29 passing against Denver. Running back Lynn Cain becomes the first Falcon player to ever score three touchdowns in a single game as he catches two and rushes for another against Oakland on October 14. In a 31–21 victory over San Francisco on December 16, records were broken for the season by Andrews with 1,023 yards rushing, WR Wallace Francis with 74 catches for 1,013 yards and by Bartkowski with 2,502 passing yards (203–379). The Falcons finish the year at 6–10 and C Jeff Van Note is selected to play in the Pro Bowl.

1980

The Falcons go on a nine-game winning streak, starting with a 41–14 rout of New Orleans, to finish with a 12–4 record to capture the team's first-ever NFC Western Division title. The Falcons nine straight wins and 12 wins on the season are both club bests. In a battle of 12–4 teams in Atlanta, the Falcons build a 27–17 lead over Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff game, but are defeated by the Cowboys 30–27 in front of the largest crowd in stadium history (60,022). The year features club records in passing from QB Steve Bartkowski (3,544 yards and 31 TDs), rushing by RB William Andrews (1,308 yards) and receiving by WR Alfred Jenkins (1,025 yards) plus LB Al Richardson got a takeaway in nine consecutive games as the team garnered a total of 42 takeaways. A record six Falcons are selected to play in the Pro Bowl: Andrews, Bartkowski, Jenkins, C Jeff Van Note, T Mike Kenn and TE Junior Miller.

Trailing Green Bay 17-0 after three quarters on the road, the Falcons erupt for an NFL record tying 31 fourth quarter points in a 31-17 win. The team finishes the year at 7-9 and has a club-record seven members selected to the Pro Bowl: T Mike Kenn, QB Steve Bartkowski, C Jeff Van Note, WR Alfred Jenkins, RB William Andrews, TE Junior Miller and G R.C. Thielemann. The team will look back on seven losses of five points or less as to why they finished with the 7-9 record. The defeats were by 1,2,2,3,3,3 and 5 points.

1982

Season ticket sales are halted after reaching a club record 55,144 as Atlanta finishes the strike-shortened season at 5-4. For the third time in five seasons, the Falcons go to the playoffs with a playoff- clinching 17-7 victory on national-television at San Francisco on December 19. In the opening round of the playoffs at Minnesota, the Falcons special teams score touchdowns on a blocked punt and a fake field goal to help build a 21-13 lead in the second half. But the Vikings rally for 14 points in the 4th quarter to win 30-24. T Mike Kenn, G R.C. Thielemann, C Jeff Van Note and RB William Andrews are selected to the Pro Bowl.

1983

The Falcons end the year with a 7-9 record as new head coach Dan Henning takes over the team. DE Kenny Johnson became only the 12th player in NFL history to score two touchdowns in the same game on interception returns as Atlanta defeats Green Bay 41-34 in overtime. Running back William Andrews sets a new club record with 331 rushing attempts for 1,567 yards. QB Steve Bartkowski has his third 3,000-yard season and set a team mark with a 63.4% completion rate and just a 1.1% interception rate (5 interceptions in 432 passing attempts), while C Jeff Van Note starts his 200th game as a Falcon on December 18.

1984

RB Gerald Riggs takes over for the Falcons' all time leading rusher William Andrews who is out for the season after knee surgery. On opening day at New Orleans, Riggs sets a new club record with 35 attempts for 202 yards in a 36-28 win. This begins the first of three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons for Riggs who carries 483 times over 18 games without fumbling. The Falcons finish the year at 4-12.

1985

PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson became the NFL's all-time leading punt returner as he gains 58 yards in the season opener versus Detroit on September 8. On the final game of the season, RB Gerald Riggs runs for 158 yards, his 9th 100-yard game of the year, in a 16-10 win at New Orleans to finish the season with 1,719 yards and leads the NFC in rushing, while being named to the Pro Bowl. The team ends their second straight season at 4-12.Eddie LeBaron, Vice President and CEO, is dismissed, while former Falcon head coach Marion Campbell is hired as defensive coordinator.

1986

The Falcons soared to four straight wins by beating New Orleans, St. Louis, Dallas and Tampa Bay for the best-ever start in club history. On December 14, Atlanta Fulton-County Stadium played host to C Jeff Van Note day as the 18-year veteran center was honored after 246 games. With all his family present, Van Note was presented gifts including a vintage 1957 Chevy (symbolic of his jersey #57 and being a classic). K Mick Luckhurst extended his club record to 117 consecutive PATs, as the team lost seven of their last nine contests to end the year at 7-8-1. G Bill Fralic and RB Gerald Riggs were selected to represent the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

1987

For the second time in his career, Marion Campbell is named head coach of the team. After being defeated 48-10 at Tampa Bay in the season opener the Falcons rebound claiming victory over the eventual World Champion Washington Redskins 21-20 in front of over 50,000 fans at Fulton-County Stadium on September 20. Also on that day, PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson added another milestone to his brilliant career by becoming the NFL's all-time leading punt returner by recording his 259th lifetime return. On September 22, the NFL Players Association walk off the job for the second time in five years, but only one game is cancelled. The League's owners decide to continue with replacement players. RB Gerald Riggs becomes the club's all-time leading rusher with 5,987 yards, surpassing William Andrews on December 6. P Rick Donnelly and WR Sylvester Stamps claim a pair of NFL individual titles as they finish the season with the league's punting title with a 44.03 average and a league-best 27.5 kickoff return average, respectively.

The Falcons end the year with a 3-12 record, while G Bill Fralic and Riggs are named to the Pro Bowl.

An improving Falcons defense was among the best in the NFL during the second half of the season as Atlanta finishes the '88 campaign at 5-11. Atlanta's "baby boomers" (average age of 25) allowed only six touchdowns over the final seven games. CB Scott Case laid claim to a spot in the Pro Bowl by being named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for November. Case picked off 10 passes on the season to finish atop the league charts and set a Falcons record for interceptions in a season. Running back John Settle put his name in the league record book by becoming the first free agent in NFL history since the 1970 merger to gain 1,000 yards in a season with 1,024 yards. G Bill Fralic joined Case and Settle in the Pro Bowl following the season.

1989

CB Deion "Prime Time" Sanders, who after a lengthy holdout, reports to camp and takes part in practice on Friday and a Saturday walk-through before the season opener versus the Los Angeles Rams. In the first quarter, Sanders returns a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. After hitting a home run for the New York Yankees earlier in the week, it makes him the only modern day athlete to hit a homerun and score a touchdown in the same week. G Bill Fralic goes to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, the only guard in the NFL to do so, and is named to the 2nd team of the All-NFL team of the 80's. Rookie WR Shawn Collins leads all NFL rookies and sets a club rookie mark with 58 catches, while Sanders gains post-season recognition by leading all rookie defensive backs with five interceptions and gaining over 1,000 yards in return yardage. Head coach Marion Campbell announces his resignation after 12 games (3-9); leaving assistant head coach Jim Hanifan to take over for the final four games. The team ends the season with a 3-13 mark.

1990

Former Falcons defensive coordinator and Houston Oilers head coach Jerry Glanville accepts the offer to become the Falcons 9th head coach in franchise history. The team announces plans for their 25th Anniversary season that includes going back to the original black jerseys of 1966. In addition, black helmets are unveiled along with the anniversary logo patches for the uniforms. With the number one pick in the draft, Atlanta trades with Indianapolis for six-time Pro Bowl lineman T Chris Hinton, all-rookie WR Andre Rison and the following year's #1 pick. The Falcons close their first-ever undefeated preseason at 4-0 with a 45-14 win over New England. On September 9, Houston comes to town to face Atlanta and their former coach, but the Falcons prevail scoring three defensive touchdowns en route to a 47-27 victory. The Falcons led the NFL with a 3.3 per carry rush defense as the team moved up in over 20 statistical categories from the previous season to finish the year at 5-11. LB Jessie Tuggle led the NFL in tackles with 201 and Rison sets a club mark with 82 pass receptions on his way to a Pro Bowl berth.

1991

The Falcons proved to be one of the most exciting and entertaining teams of the NFL in '91, winning six straight games down the stretch and eight of their last 11 contests, to earn a playoff berth at 10-6. Atlanta had the second most wins in club history with 11 and captured their first road playoff victory at New Orleans. The Falcons also made team history by sweeping through their NFC West road trips by defeating the Saints, Rams, and 49ers, giving San Francisco their only home loss on the season. A sellout crowd witnessed the Falcons final home game of the 1991 season, as well as Atlanta's final game in Fulton-County Stadium. The Falcons defeated Seattle, 26-13, to run their home win streak to five straight. CBs Deion Sanders and Tim McKyer both co-led the NFC in interceptions with six apiece. Sanders was joined at the Pro Bowl by teammates WR Andre Rison, QB Chris Miller and T Chris Hinton.

1992

On August 23, a sold-out crowd and a national TV audience saw the Falcons win the first-ever football game in the new Georgia Dome, 20-10, over the Philadelphia Eagles. In the regular season opener in the Dome, Atlanta scored on their first four possessions en route to a 20-17 win over the New York Jets before another sellout crowd. The Falcons led the NFL with a club record 33-touchdown passes and became the only team to have 30 or more touchdowns in both '91 and '92. The 336 pass completions were a club season best as were the 194 passing first downs. WR Andre Rison set a club record with 93 receptions and became the first player in NFL history to have 300 catches in their first four years in the league. The Rison-WR Michael Haynes tandem netted 21 touchdowns to lead the NFL for the second straight year (23 in '91). The team finished the season with a 6-10 record as Rison, DB Deion Sanders, LB Jessie Tuggle and special teams standout Elbert Shelley were named to the Pro Bowl.

1993

Led by Pro Bowlers WR Andre Rison, QB Bobby Hebert, S Elbert Shelley and PK Norm Johnson, Atlanta's offense scored over 300 points for the fourth consecutive season. Rison scored a club record 15 TDs and set a new standard for the most receptions in his first five seasons with 394. Hebert finished third in the NFL with a career-high 24 touchdown passes and had the NFL's longest play of the year, a 98-yard strike to WR Michael Haynes. Johnson nearly had a perfect season, connecting on 26-of-27 field goals (.963), while stretching his consecutive FG streak to 26 in-a-row, the second best mark in NFL history. Pro Bowler CB Deion Sanders continued to be an impact player, picking off seven passes while shutting down the league's top receivers. Third-year RB Erric Pegram made a name for himself, rushing for 1,185 yards, the fourth highest total in '93 as the team ended the year for a second straight season at 6-10.

June Jones was named the Falcons' 10th head coach on January 24 replacing Jerry Glanville who resigned following the 1993 season. The '94 season was trademarked by the way the team started and ended each game. The Falcons came out ready to play in the first quarters, rolling up a combined 93-61 advantage in those first 15 minutes of play. Atlanta also had the lead in 14 of the 16 games they played in and led 12 of those 16 games, heading into the fourth quarter only to finish the year with a 7-9 record. In 11 of the 16 games, the Falcons had the lead at the two-minute warning only to falter in the end. Wide receiver Terance Mathis closes out a brilliant season with a club record 111 receptions, the fourth highest total of all-time. His 1,342 receiving yards ranks second on the Atlanta's all-time charts. For his efforts, he is voted to the '95 Pro Bowl along with teammates LB Jessie Tuggle and S Elbert Shelley.

1995

In what would be Atlanta's first playoff season since 1991, the Falcons ended the regular season with a 9-7 mark, while establishing some club and league records along the way. K Morten Andersen, who was signed as a free agent from New Orleans before training camp, sets an NFL- mark with three field goals from beyond 50 yards in one game. Shots from 55, 55 and 51 capped a 19-14 victory over Andersen's former Saints teammates to give Atlanta their first sweep of New Orleans since 1985. Needing a win to make the playoffs, the Falcons pull off the improbable, defeating the defending World Champion 49ers, 28-27, in front of a frenzied crowd at the Georgia Dome on Christmas Eve. Quarteback Bobby Hebert connects with WR Terance Mathis on two touchdowns, including the game-winner, as Mathis makes an incredible run to the end zone with 1:45 remaining. Atlanta establishes an NFL record by having four players each gain 1,000 yards, including WRs Eric Metcalf (1,189), Terance Mathis (1,039), Bert Emanuel (1,039) and RB Craig Heyward (1,083). Quarterback Jeff George, meanwhile, became only the 18th quarterback in league history to have over 4,000 yards passing in a season by finishing with 4,143 yards. LB Jessie Tuggle, S Elbert Shelley, DE Chris Doleman, Andersen and Hayward were named to the Pro Bowl.

1996

Only one season after earning a wild-card berth, Atlanta tied a club-mark for most losses and finished with the third-poorest winning percentage (.188) in team history with a 3-13 mark. A 31-15 victory over the Saints on December 8 snapped a 10-game road losing streak and provided the team with its first NFC West win outside the Georgia Dome since an overtime win in New Orleans on September 17, 1995. In a lone bright spot, RB Jamal Anderson became the seventh Falcons player in club history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season, gaining 1,055 on the year. With Anderson's accomplishment, the Falcons were the only NFL team to have three different players in the past four years to gain 1,000 yards. On December 23, head coach June Jones was dismissed from the team.

1997

On January 3, Dan Reeves is named the 11th head coach in franchise history as he comes to Atlanta as Executive Vice President of Football Operations/Head Coach. After a difficult 1-7 start, the Falcons went 6-2 in their final eight games to finish 7-9, marking one of the best second-half comebacks in NFL history. QB Chris Chandler came on strong and ranked second in the NFL in QB rating (95.1) on his way to his first Pro Bowl appearance, joining teammate LB Jessie Tuggle. The real story of the season, however, was the tremendous play of the defensive line, which established a club record 55 sacks to rank 2nd in the NFL. DE Chuck Smith (12.0 sacks) and DT Travis Hall (10.5 sacks) led the charge. Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away on October 26 from heart complications just hours before the Falcons were to play a nationally televised game at Carolina. The 72-year old was remembered at a Tuesday memorial service as a quiet, behind-the-scenes "pioneer" who helped bring professional sports, and other major contributions, to his beloved city of Atlanta.

The Falcons, who jumped from a 7-9 finish in 1997 to a franchise record 14-2 in 1998, specialized in quick turnovers. In one of the more heart felt stories of the year, head coach Dan Reeves underwent quadruple bypass surgery and a mere five weeks later coached his team to a 30-27 overtime victory against Minnesota to capture the NFC Championship that matched the Falcons against the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXIII in Miami. The team accomplished many firsts in 1998 with the first-ever 8–0 home mark, best overall record at 14–2, most points in a season with 442 that included a best 53 touchdowns and a league-high 44 takeaways. Atlanta was paced by RB Jamal Anderson, who set a team record with 1,846 yards rushing, including an NFL high 12 100-yard games. The Falcons dubbed themselves the "Dirty Birds" and Anderson created a touchdown dance to fit the name. The dance, which even consisted of flapping arms to act like wings, was introduced when TE O.J. Santiago celebrated his two-touchdown effort following a 41–10 victory at New England in early November. The fever it generated captivated a national audience as well as brought the Falcons to the front of the Atlanta sports scene. Dan Reeves joining Anderson on stage for a rendition of the "Dirty Bird" following the NFC Championship trophy presentation was a lasting highlight of the team's journey to the Super Bowl. Reeves, who was named NFL Coach of the Year, guided his Falcons to just the second NFC West title in the 33-year history of the franchise. QB Chris Chandler, CB Ray Buchanan, S Eugene Robinson, LB Jessie Tuggle and T Bob Whitfield joined Anderson in representing the Falcons in the Pro Bowl.

The Atlanta Falcons entered the 1999 season with the hopes of defending their 1998 NFC Champ-ionship crown and becoming the first NFL team ever to reach the Super Bowl in its own stadium. The Georgia Dome was the site of Super Bowl XXXIV. Unfortunately the setbacks of an 0–4 start led the Falcons to a disappointing 5–11 finish. In Week 2 against the Dallas Cowboys in a Monday Night Football matchup at Texas Stadium, RB Jamal Anderson was lost for the season with a knee injury. The Falcons did reach some milestones through the season. WR Ternace Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receptions with a 12-catch, 166-yard performance in a Monday Night Football game at Pittsburgh. LB Jessie Tuggle had his 12th-straight 100-tackle season after finishing with a team-leading 122 total tackles.

2000

After a 2–1 start that included victories over two key NFC West opponents, the Falcons season took a turn for the worse with a 4–12 final record. The Falcons suffered several key injuries including a season-ending foot injury to LB Keith Brooking after five games and LB Jessie Tuggle in the eighth game of the season. RB Jamal Anderson returned to action following a 1999 season-ending knee injury, starting all 16 games and finishing with his fourth 1,000-yard season with 1,024 yards. K Morten Andersen began the season with a five-field goal game vs. San Francisco and then ended the year with five field goals in the season-finale vs. Kansas City. In the process he became the Falcons all-time leader in both field goals and points. Wide receiver Ternace Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receiving yards to pass WR Alfred Jenkins in that category. Rookie CB Darrick Vaughn, the Falcons seventh round draft choice, led the NFL with a 27.7 average and three kickoff returns for a touchdown. That average and the three touchdowns are both Falcons single-season high marks.

The 2001 Atlanta Falcons entered Week 15 with a matchup at Miami with a 7–7 record and still alive in the NFC playoff race. Three controversial calls by the officials and two goal line stands by the Dolphins defense ended the Falcons postseason hopes with a 21–14 defeat. The next week the Falcons traveled to St. Louis and lost 31–13 to finish the year with a disappointing 7–9 record. Even with two overtime losses to San Francisco when the Falcons squandered fourth quarter leads, Atlanta jumped to a 6–4 record before winning just one of their remaining six games. Included in the wins was a big 23–20 victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field, highlighted by a 352-passing effort by QB Chris Chandler. Long after memories of the disappointing 2001 season end, the year will be remembered for the nucleus of young players that emerged and will hopefully lead the Falcons to a successful future. Among the group of young players that stood out were Pro Bowl LB Keith Brooking, who had 10 or more tackles in 11 of the team's 16 games, and first-round draft pick QB Michael Vick. Vick had the normal growing pains of any rookie quarterback, but in the Miami game Vick, who played following an elbow injury to Chandler, showed flashes of his potential, completing 11 of 20 passes for 214 yards with a touchdown and gaining 63 yards rushing on five carries. Among his highlights were a 52-yard pass to WR Brian Finneran and a 23-yard scramble for a first down on a 4th and 15 play. A renewed Chandler led the team to a 6–4 record in games where he started and finished, and DE Patrick Kerney had a breakout year with a team-leading 12.0 sacks. The day before the draft, the Falcons obtained the first pick in a trade with San Diego and used the pick on Vick, who is expected to be the quarterback of the future. In another historical move, team President Taylor Smith agreed to sell the team to local businessman Arthur Blank, who was approved by the NFL owners the day before the Super Bowl. A week before the final preseason game the end of an era came upon the Falcons when LB Jessie Tuggle retired following 14 seasons in Atlanta. The example he set helped his replacement Brooking, who was moved from the weakside linebacker spot to the middle, spring to the top of the middle linebacker lists in the NFL with a career-high 167 tackles.

The Atlanta Falcons began the Arthur Blank era with a 9–6–1 record and a berth in the playoffs as a Wild Card participant. Blank helped resurrect the excitement in the Georgia Dome with added value to the fans with increased tailgating, parking and entertainment. The fans responded with every game being sold out. After beginning the year with a 1–3 record, head coach Dan Reeves and QB Michael Vick led the Falcons to an NFL-best eight-game unbeaten streak (7–0–1). The Falcons set records and showcased numerous highlights during that stretch. In a game at Pittsburgh, the Falcons rallied from a 34–17 deficit with just over eight minutes to play to tie the game at 34–34. The Falcons also shutout Carolina two times with a 30–0 victory at the Dome and a 41–0 win in Charlotte. The Falcons finished the season with a team-record 23 rushing touchdowns and a franchise-best eight games with 30 or more points. After finishing 30th in rushing in 1999, 28th in 2000 and 16th in 2001, the Falcons improved to 4th in the NFL in 2002. On the defensive side of the ball, new defensive coordinator Wade Phillips made a switch to a 3–4 defensive alignment that helped the team finish third in interceptions with 24, second in takeaways with 39 and fourth in sacks with 47. In his first season as a starter, Vick earned a Pro Bowl berth to become just the sixth quarterback to be voted to the Pro Bowl in his first year as a starter. Vick rushed for 173 yards in an overtime win at Minnesota, the highest single-game rushing total for an NFL quarterback ever. Vick also had the longest run ever by a Falcons quarterback with a 46-yard game-winning touchdown in overtime against the Vikings. LB Keith Brooking earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth after setting a career-high with 212 total tackles. In the postseason, the Falcons became the first team ever to defeat the Green Bay Packers in the postseason at Lambeau Field with a 27–7 win to advance to the second round of the NFC playoffs. The Falcons season came to an end the next week with a 20–6 loss against the Philadelphia Eagles at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Divisional playoff game.

2003

One season removed from a playoff berth and a historical win over Green Bay in the playoffs, the 2003 Falcons fell to 5–11. Injuries and a lack of consistency punctuated the Falcons 2003 season. QB Michael Vick, who played a large role in the Falcons' push for the playoffs in 2002, suffered a broken right leg in the second preseason game against Baltimore and did not return until the 11th game of the regular season in a relief appearance at Houston. Strong first half efforts would give way to second half heartbreak as the Falcons went 2–6 in the eight games which they led at the half. The Falcons defeated the Dallas Cowboys in the regular season opener, 27–13, before losing their next seven contests. They did not win again until the ninth game of the season when they went on the road and defeated the New York Giants 27–7. The victory gave Falcons head coach Dan Reeves the 200th win of his career. One year after setting the NFL single-game record for most yards rushing by a quarterback, Vick went out and rushed for a 141 yards in his first start of the season against the Panthers. His rushing performance marked the third-highest single game rushing total by a quarterback in NFL history. Three days after the victory against the Panthers, Reeves, who coached the Falcons for seven seasons, was released from his contract on December 10. Defensive coordinator Wade Phillips took over as interim coach for the final three games. In the days leading up to the Buccaneers game in Week 16, Rich McKay, who for the previous eight seasons was general manager of the Buccaneers, was named president and general manager of the Falcons on December 15. Less than two weeks after the conclusion of the season, Jim Mora was named head coach on January 9, 2004. LB Keith Brooking and TE Alge Crumpler were named to the Pro Bowl, with Crumpler earning a starting nod on the NFC squad.

First year Head Coach Jim Mora's fiery, motivating style of coaching becomes contagious and resonates with his team as the Falcons match the best start ever in team history at 4–0 on their way to a 6–2 halfway record. The aggressive approach on both offense and defense pays off and masks the potential growing pains of new offensive and defensive systems being implemented. The birds clinch just their third division title in team history in high fashion in a 35–10 rout of the Oakland Raiders in Week 14 as RB T.J. Duckett establishes a new team record with four rushing touchdowns. The club finishes the regular season with an 11–5 record, a first round playoff bye, and sets numerous milestones, including leading the NFL in rushing for the first time ever with a team record 2,672 yards and a club-best a 5.1 per carry average, as well as a League-high 48 sacks, which also is the first time that feat has been accomplished. The Falcons defense soars 18 spots from the last in the League in 2003 to 14th in total defense and scoring defense under new architect Ed Donatell. Atlanta blasts St. Louis 47–17 in the Divisional Playoff game at the Georgia Dome in one of the most dominant rushing performances in postseason history, racking up 327 yards rushing, the fourth-highest total ever. The Falcons' dream of a Super Bowl trip is ended the following week in a 27–10 defeat at Philadelphia in the NFC Championship Game, the second NFC Title appearance in team history. Mora garners votes for NFL Coach of the Year and becomes just the 11th head coach in NFL history to capture a Division title in his first season. QB Michael Vick, TE Alge Crumpler, LB Keith Brooking, DE Patrick Kerney and returner Allen Rossum go to the Pro Bowl, the most Falcons players since 1998 Super Bowl season.

The Falcons soar to a 6–2 first half record despite numerous injuries on defense that force rookies into the starting lineup and a shuffling of linebacker positions after five games. Atlanta records a perfect 3–0 mark on Monday Night Football (and 4–1 record in nationally-televised games). The growing pains catch up to the Falcons in the second half of the season though and the team finishes 8–8. Atlanta's offense again leads the NFL in rushing yards with 2,546 yards and average at 4.8. RB Warrick Dunn enjoys a career year with a career-high 1,416 rushing yards en route to earning his Pro Bowl since 2000. TE Alge Crumpler leads the team in receptions with a career-best 65 catches for a career-high 877 receiving yards. QB Michael Vick passes for 2,412 yards with 15 touchdowns and rushes for 597 yards and six scores. LB Keith Brooking leads the club again in tackles with 150 as he moves over to MLB after a season-ending Achilles injury to Edgerton Hartwell in Week 5 forces a chain reaction of wholesale changes in the linebacker department. Rookies such as LB Michael Boley and DL Jonathon Babineuax, Chauncey Davis and Darrell Shropshire are pressed into major duty due to injuries. DT Rod Coleman leads all interior linemen with 10.5 sacks. Dunn, Crumpler, Vick, Brooking, Coleman and CB DeAngelo Hall are voted to the Pro Bowl by their peers and are the most Pro Bowlers since the 1998 Super Bowl season.

2006

Similiar to the second half of 2005, the Falcons start out 5–2 in first half of play only to limp to 2–7 down the stretch. Head Coach Jim Mora is dismissed from his contract after three years following the 7–9 season. The Falcons lead the NFL in rushing again for the third straight year with a franchise record 2,939 yards, which is the ninth-highest total in NFL history. Michael Vick becomes the first quarterback in League history to rush for over 1,000 yards with 1,039. With RB Warrick Dunn's 1,140 rushing yards, Vick and Dunn become only the fourth set of backfield teammates to both eclipse the century mark in the same season in NFL history. Vick also adds a career-high 20 touchdown passes. TE Alge Crumpler is named to his fourth straight Pro Bowl as he leads the team in receiving and adds a career-high eight touchdowns. CB DeAngelo Hall also is voted to the Pro Bowl but first year as a starter. K Morten Andersen becomes the NFL's all-time leading scorer and all-time leader in career field goals.

2007

The Falcons placed a franchise record 16 players on injured reserve which included seven starters over the course of the season. Atlanta also witnessed its starting quarterback be suspended by the NFL prior to the start of the year while its Head Coach Bobby Petrino left the team following Week 14. With a 4-12 record, the Falcons did see some positive results however. Wide receiver Roddy White became the Falcons first 1,000-yard receiver since 1999 and running back Warrick Dunn became the 22nd player in league history to amass 10,000 career rushing yards. Kicker Morten Andersen and quarterback Chris Redman each received NFC Player of the Week accolades.

In just one season, the Atlanta Falcons rebounded from four wins in 2007 to an 11-5 regular season record and the team's first playoff berth since 2004. The '08 campaign was a year of firsts as first year Head Coach Mike Smith and first year quarterback Matt Ryan became the first rookie head coach and quarterback duo to compete in a playoff contest since 1945 when the Cleveland Rams accomplished the feat. In Smith's stellar first season, he also became only the fourth Head Coach in franchise history to record 11 or more victories in a single year en route to Associated Press Coach of the Year honors. The distinction marked only the second occasion a Falcons coach earned the award in franchise history. The Falcons witnessed an entire team effort in the turnaround as an organization with a fresh look that took the NFL by storm, winning five of their last six games on the way to a second place finish in the NFC South Division. Atlanta garnerned two Pro Bowl selections in running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White who also made their first visits to the league's all-star game. Quarterback Matt Ryan earned Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and was named NFC Rookie of the Month (October), a first in both categories in team history. The Falcons also finished the regular season with five NFC Player of the Week accolades. The 2009 season featured many team and individual accomplishments, but none as impressive as wide receiver Roddy White who finished the season with 85 receptions for 1,153 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns. He became only the second receiver in franchise history to register three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Tight end Tony Gonzalez, who led all tight ends in NFL history at seasons end in receptions (999), yards (11,807) and touchdowns (82), became the 21st player in NFL history to surpass 11,000 career receiving yards. The Falcons also had four players selected to go to the Pro Bowl, Alex Mack, Julio Jones, Austin Hooper and Jake Matthews.

Head Coach Dan Quinn took it upon himself to try and right the ship after an unsuccessful season for the franchise. Quinn hired Dirk Koetter, who will take over play calling for the offense and Ben Kotwica, who will oversee special teams. 2003 - PRESENT

The year 2003 continued to bring about many new changes for the Atlanta Falcons. Perhaps the biggest changes came with the introduction of the team's new logo and uniforms unveiled over the course of a two-month period.

On March 19, 2003, before a large gathering of media and the entire Falcons organization, the Falcons presented their new logo.

"The new Atlanta Falcons logo is fresh, strong and dynamic, and yet appreciates the tradition and history of this franchise," said Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank. "The new logo depicts a more powerful, aggressive Falcon - one of fast movement. It is also representative of the evolution and direction of our team."

The logo was designed in conjunction with NFL Properties after a lengthy research process, which included conducting focus groups and polls with many fans. In addition, Falcons players, coaches and staff had the opportunity to give their thoughts.

The home uniforms consisted of black jerseys and white pants, while the road attire featured white jerseys and white pants. The team also introduced modified versions of the uniforms, which included wearing black jerseys with black pants at home and white jerseys with black pants on the road.

The jerseys and pants included red piping down the side, which expand at the knee for a fast, streamlined look. They also have "Falcons" stitched at the neckline in a newly developed font and include a number font that was designed specifically for the Falcons, consisting of a drop shadow for more depth. The black jerseys contained white numbers with red trim, while the white jerseys contained red numbers with black trim. The new Falcons logo appeared on the sleeve of both jerseys on a red background. The helmet remained black, however it also featured a metallic flack compared to the previous flat black-colored helmet.

In 2004, the Falcons announced they would wear red jerseys at home and use the black jerseys as their alternate third jersey. Declared the team's alternate third jersey in 2003, red jerseys were worn twice in 2003, against the Tennessee Titans on November 23 and again in the Falcons nationally-televised 20-14 overtime win against the Carolina Panthers on December 7.

2003–Present

2009

The Falcons unveiled throwback uniforms in a Week 2 meeting against the Carolina Panthers to honor the inaugural 1966 team as part of "Alumni Weekend." Atlanta again donned the retro uniforms in a Week 12 meeting against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Georgia Dome. Atlanta won both games with the throwback uniforms.

2009–Present Throwback Uniforms

The team took the field in a blended 1966 replica uniform against the San Diego Chargers and San Francisco 49ers, as they paid homage to the athletes and teams that paved the way before them. As a special tribute, Falcons players throughout history were recognized in honor of the team's annual Alumni Game.

The Falcons throwback design aesthetic stayed true to 1966 with exception of the helmet. The original uniform featured a red helmet with a similar bold stripe pattern down the center to match the pants and socks. This year, due to NFL helmet safety rules, the team punctuated the throwback uniform with their current black helmet. It showcased the original Falcon crest used by the team from 1966 to 2003 - the same black on black design worn in the team's 1998 Super Bowl appearance.

1966 Nike Throwback

First introduced in 2016, the NFL Color Rush program, in partnership with Nike, was started as a way to give NFL teams the opportunity to honor each franchise and engage spirited fans and cities while adding yet another reason to watch on Thursday nights.

Featuring a full-color head-to-toe look, each club's Color Rush uniform takes inspiration from both its current and historic uniform colors and designs, combined with progressive innovation that will set the tone for the future of the game and light up Thursday Night Football, the fastest growing NFL primetime night.

The Falcons selected a bold all-red head-to-toe uniform aesthetic, however due to a color conflict in their Thursday Night matchup against Tampa Bay on November 3, 2016 Atlanta wore their white uniform as the away team.

One hundred percent of the NFL's proceeds from the sale of Color Rush jerseys will go directly to the NFL Foundation to fund health, safety and wellness programs for youth around the country. The NFL Foundation is the league's non-profit organization, representing all 32 clubs, and funds grants to support athletes, youth football and the communities that support the game. The first $500,000 raised from this initiative was earmarked to replace youth and high school football equipment and fields lost in last month's devastating floods in Louisiana.

FALCONS HOME RECORD (13-11)

The Georgia World Congress Center Authority and Atlanta Falcons completed an agreement for a new retractable roof stadium to be built on the Georgia World Congress Center campus. Scheduled to open during the summer of 2017, the Merceds-Benz Stadium will serve as the home of the Atlanta Falcons in addition to Atlanta United, as well as conventions, and entertainment events, such as the College Football National Championship in 2018, Super Bowl LIII in 2019, and the NCAA Men's Final Four in 2020.

The Authority and Falcons have created a long-term solution for the region, state and Falcons by agreeing to a new stadium on the Georgia World Congress Center campus. The new facility will allow the Falcons to provide a league-competitive game day experience for fans and ensure the city and state are able to retain major events currently held at the Georgia Dome as well as attract new marquee events to the region.

The Falcons opened up Mercedes-Benz stadium against the Green Bay Packers on September 17, 2017. During that game, Atlanta jumped out on the Packers early and held onto a lead late, as they gained their first win in Mercedes-Benz Stadium, 34-23.

GEORGIA DOME (1992–2016)

FALCONS HOME RECORD (116-83–0)

In 1992, the Atlanta Falcons and the state of Georgia unveiled to the rest of the world the latest crown jewel in an ever-shining southern skyline with the opening of the Georgia Dome.

The Georgia Dome is the culmination of efforts which began in earnest in June of 1984 as business, civic and governmental leaders gathered to discuss a new stadium in Atlanta. The project continued to gain steam in January of 1988 as a "consensus" of leaders agreed on using a hotel/motel tax increase to finance the local portion of construction.

In January of 1989, Rankin Smith and then-governor Joe Frank Harris signed a "memorandum of understanding" for the Falcons to play in the Dome under a 20-year lease.

The project came to fruition in the spring of 1989 when the state, the Atlanta City Council, and Fulton County Commission approved the construction of the $210 million Dome. Groundbreaking ceremonies took place on November 22, 1989, with construction getting underway on March 27, 1990.

As soon as the project was passed, the Dome became a major 'player' in the sporting community.Rankin Smith was determined to introduce the south's latest showpiece to the football world and he succeeded. With the determined backing of the Smith family, the Georgia Dome played host to the most significant sporting events in the world as global attention was focused on Atlanta for Super Bowl XXVIII played on January 31, 1994 between the Dallas Cowboys and the Buffalo Bills. The Georgia Dome hosted its second Super Bowl on January 30, 2000 between the St. Louis Rams and the Tennessee Titans.

The Falcons played their last regualr season game in the Georgia Dome against the New Orleans Saints on January 1, 2017. The team clinched the NFC South on a 38-32 victory, as they locked up the number two seed in the playoffs with the victory. The Falcons' regular season record in the Georgia Dome was 116-83.

The Falcons officially closed the Georgia Dome with a 44-21 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Championship game to send the franchise to it's second Super Bowl in team history.

ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM (1966–91)

FALCONS RECORD (85–106–2)

Twenty-six years of NFL football in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium came to an end on December 15, 1991 when the Falcons met the Seattle Seahawks for their final game in their very first home.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was built in 51 weeks and gave the city the foundation to support big-league baseball and pro football. Less than a year after construction, the stadium was primped for a cameo appearance by the baseball Braves, who were still playing in Milwaukee at the time, on April 9, 1965. On August 14 of that same year, the Minnesota Vikings defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the first football game ever played at the stadium. Some local people deemed the Stadium "The Miracle on Capital Avenue."

Georgia Dome

LB Jessie Tuggle was honored at the Georgia Dome

The Atlanta Falcons organization doesn't officially retire jersey numbers, but considers certain player's jerseys worthy of being honored. Currently, the Falcons do not use any of the jersey numbers honored below. The Falcons Ring of Honor which is featured in the rafters of the Georgia Dome honors individual players and not jerseys.

#60 - TOMMY NOBIS (1966–76)

The first-ever player drafted by the Atlanta Falcons for the inaugural 1966 season, Nobis quickly became the first-ever Falcons player to be voted to the Pro Bowl after being selected as a rookie. The stellar middle linebacker was named the NFL Rookie of the Year for his efforts. "Mr. Falcon" led the team in tackles in nine of his 11 seasons, while earning five trips to the Pro Bowl. In a poll conducted in 1970 by ABC to pick the best athlete of the decade of the 1960s, running back O.J. Simpson was number one and Tommy Nobis was number two in the entire country. He had an astronomical 294 total combined tackles as a rookie, still the team's club record. Nobis also intercepted 11 passes during his pro career, returning two for touchdowns. His uniform #60 has been worn by only him during the team's existence. He retired in 1976.

#87 - CLAUDE HUMPHREY (1968-74, 76-78)

Humphrey is currently the team's all-time sack leader with 94.5. He was selected as the 1968 Defensive Rookie of the Year and earned six Pro Bowl honors throughout his career, tying Jeff Van Note for the most in team history. Humphrey's five consecutive Pro Bowl nods from 1970-74 is also tied with current Falcons linebacker Keith Brooking and fellow inductee Mike Kenn for the most consecutive Pro Bowl appearances in team history. Humphrey was also voted the Falcons Player of the Year in 1976 after leading the team with 15.0 sacks, the second-highest total in a season in Falcons annals. In 127 career games, the Tennessee State alum recovered 11 fumbles, which ranks sixth in team history and also returned one fumble recovery for his only touchdown against the Minnesota Vikings on December 21, 1969.

#57 - JEFF VAN NOTE (1969–86)

Holds Falcons team marks for most seasons played (18) and most consecutive games played (155). He is second in the team record books with 246 games played and 225 games started. Van Note originally came to the Falcons as a linebacker from Kentucky, but was moved to center by head coach Norm Van Brocklin and eventually earned the starting job at center in 1970. He earned the first of his six Pro Bowl berths in 1974. Van Note is tied with Claude Humphrey for most Pro Bowl appearances by a Falcons player with six. He retired in 1986.

#10 - STEVE BARTKOWSKI (1975-85)

The No. 1 overall draft pick in 1975, he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year after throwing for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns. He set every team record in passing, which included 23,468 career yards and 154 touchdown passes in 123 games. He produced three seasons of 3,000 yards or more passing, 12 games of more than 300 yards passing and two seasons of 30 or more touchdown passes. Bartkowski collected over 50 victories as a starting quarterback for the Falcons and guided the team to their first playoff victory in franchise history over the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978.

#78 - MIKE KENN (1978-94)

Kenn was the 13th overall selection in the 1978 NFL Draft by Atlanta and spent his entire 17-year career in a Falcons uniform. He started every game he played in, setting a franchise record for the most career games played and the most career starts with 251. Kenn only missed nine games during his Atlanta tenure after beginning his career with 90 consecutive starts. The Michigan alum participated in six playoff games and was a member of an offensive line that allowed the lowest sack total (25) in a single season (1982) in team history. The Falcons amassed 30,455 total rushing yards and 188 rushing touchdowns during Kenn's career with the team.

#31 - WILLIAM ANDREWS (1979–86)

A third-round pick, Andrews was among the NFL's elite runners when a shocking knee injury prematurely ended his career. He became just the second running back in NFL history to have two 2,000-yard (combined yards) seasons (the only other player prior to Williams was O.J. Simpson). When he had his first 2,000-yard year, he joined just four other backs who had done so (Jim Brown, Walter Payton, Wilbert Montgomery and Simpson). In his first five seasons in the NFL (1979-83), Andrews outgained every other back in the entire NFL. The bullish Andrews had 8,382 total yards in those five years (an average of 1,677 per year) to lead all NFL runners. Andrews set 19 Falcons club records that began in his very first NFL game in 1979 when he ran for 167 yards in a game at New Orleans where he totaled 189 yards. He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1983 and made the NFL All-Rookie team in 1979. He retired in 1987.

#42 - GERALD RIGGS (1982–88)

Riggs was selected by the Falcons as the ninth overall pick in the 1982 NFL Draft out of Arizona State. He was a three-time Pro Bowler in his seven seasons in Atlanta and finished his Falcons career as the franchise's all-time rushing leader with 6,631 rushing yards. Riggs tallied 48 career touchdowns, which puts him second in team history in terms of rushing touchdowns and fifth in overall touchdowns. Riggs' name litters the Falcons record books as he was one of the most prolific rushers of his time.

#58 - JESSIE TUGGLE (1987–2000)

Jessie came to the Falcons as an undrafted free agent in 1987 and retired in August of 2001 as one of the all-time greatest players in franchise history. Nicknamed, "The Hammer", for his bone-jarring tackles, Tuggle is the club's all-time leader in total tackles with 2,065 and enjoyed 12 straight 100-tackle seasons. He led the team in tackles in a season 10 times and amassed 20 or more tackles in a single-game on four occasions with a personal-best of 24 stops. His 14 seasons played, 189 career starts and 209 total games played are third-most ever in Falcons history. Tuggle's five Pro Bowl appearances (1992, 1995, 1995, 1997, 1998) stand tied for the third-most ever by a Falcons player. The Falcons honored #58 with "Jessie Tuggle Day" during halftime of the Falcons game vs. the Detroit Lions on December 22, 2002.

#21 - DEION SANDERS (1989-93)

Sanders was a three-time Pro Bowl starter during his Falcons career after being selected as the fifth overall player in the 1989 draft out of Florida State. Considered one of the best pure cornerbacks ever to lace up a pair of cleats, Sanders also doubled as a dangerous return man. He was recently tabbed the 34th best player in the history of the League by a new NFL Films-produced series, The Top 100: NFL's Greatest Players.

#28 - WARRICK DUNN (2002-07)

In 2002, Dunn was signed by the Atlanta Falcons where he spent the next six years of his career. Dunn posted 5,981 rushing yards – fourth on the franchise's all-time list – in 90 games for the Birds. Dunn was also a dynamic receiver out of the backfield, his 204 receptions are second on the franchise's all-time list among running backs and his 1,635 receiving yards ranks third on that list. In 2005, Dunn was selected to his third career Pro Bowl – first with the Falcons – after posting his second consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season (1,416 yards) and catching 29 passes for 220 yards and tallying four total touchdowns. In 2006, Dunn had his third consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season (1,140) with the team and joined his teammate QB Michael Vick, who also had 1,000 yards rushing (1,039) that year as well. They became the fourth duo in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards – only two other pairs of teammates have done it since 2006. It also marked the first time in NFL history that a quarterback and running back from the same team each rushed for over 1,000 yards.
